REPUBLIC OF SOMALILAND
Voters' Registration (Amendments and Additions) Law
Law No. 37/2007 (2014)

This is a translation of the final (corrected) copy of the Law as published by the House of Representatives at its website on 31 March 2015 (and which replaced the text previously published by the House at its website in early January 2015 and gazetted on 3 January 2015 Issue 12 (2014) of the Somaliland Official Gazette). A Corrigendum dated 02 May 2015 (Issue 4 (2015) of the Somaliland Official Gazette) has later covered the corrections.

The earlier title of the bill was 'Registration of Citizens and Voters (Amendments and Additions) Law' and retained, as it still does, the same numbering as the original 2007 Voters' Registration Law - Law No. 37/2007¹ as it lumps together the continuous process of registration of citizens over (and issue of identity cards) and the periodic registration of citizens eligible to vote.

The first amending law of the original 2007 Voters' Registration Law (that came into force on 8 July 2007) was promulgated on 23 June 2008 (Presidential Decree No. 345/062008 of 23 June 2008) and consisted of 12 Articles. These 2008 Amendments were specifically identified as being of a temporary nature² so as to enable the completion of the 2009 first comprehensive³ nation-wide voters' registration exercise in Somaliland. The final Register was used for the 2010 Presidential election, but was scrapped later (largely because of multiple registration problems that were difficult to clear completely) under the Voters' Registration (Amendments) Law of 2011 (Presidential Decree 0810/122011 of 13 December 2011). This was, in effect, the second amending legislation (although it is described as the 3rd Annex) and set out the following five points only:

1. The voters' registration carried out in 2008 has been voided.

¹ It is unfortunate, in my view, that an amending law is not given a new separate number and date/year, as the title, in any case, identifies the original Law that it is amending. It will also be clearer if the title of each amending indicates whether it is the first or second or third such amending law and that the current practice of sometimes referring to amending as Annexes or schedules (lifaaqyo) (a legacy of some of the 1960s Somali Republic laws) is abandoned. Secondly, I would urge the House to ensure that short amending laws are drafted in a way that links clearly each new amending article/clause directly to the article/clause that it is amending, and, in the cases of numerous or extensive amendments, to issue a consolidated text of the law that has been amended so as to ensure that the extent of all the repeals is clear and unambiguous.

² Article 1 of the 2008 Amendments: 'These amendments shall have a temporary repealing effect ...' on the specified articles/clauses. They were, in effect, 'sunset clauses' to enable the completion of the 2009 voters' registration. The amendments were all procedural provisions which have no relevance to the 2016 voters' registration, the procedural aspects of which were mostly left outside the 2014 Law to be dealt with in more detailed regulations issued by the National Electoral Commission. This was a sensible decision which meant, so far (as at February 2016), that there has been no need to go back to Parliament for further amendments of the 2014 Law on procedural issues.

³³ There were previously three minor Somaliland voter's registration exercises (which were very limited in both the electorate and the areas they covered) that were undertaken (or attempted in the last one) in early 1959 for the first ever March 1959 elections – boycotted by the SNL Party – to the then Legislative Council where only 2,508 men in 3 (then main) towns were registered; in December 1959 for the second February 1960 Legislative Assembly elections where 37,540 men were registered in the 5 main towns (source for both figures: Colonial Office Somaliland 1958 & 1959, HMSO1960, p. 6 – 7); and lastly in 2002 before the 2002 nation-wide Local District Councils elections when (according to this post-election report, p.3) approximately 350,000 persons were registered in some urban areas of the country before the registration was abandoned.

2. The then impending local District Councils elections only shall be held without a voters' register.
3. A new voters' registration shall be undertaken prior to the next elections of the House of Representatives and the next presidential elections, which will both be based on the new voters' register.
4. The amending articles in the Election Law No. 20/2001 (Presidential & Local Elections Law) relating to the voters' register are repealed.
5. Any provisions contrary to the above (four) clauses are repealed.

The main purpose of this 2014 Amending Law is therefore to lay the legal foundations and procedures for the new nation-wide voters' registration exercise to be conducted before for the forthcoming House of Representatives and Presidential elections which are currently planned to be held in early 2017. This 2014 Law should also be read with the very few provisions of the original 2007 Voters' registration Law that have not been expressly repealed by any of the new 2014 provisions, as all the 2008 amendments which were only of a temporary "sun set" nature to facilitate the completion of the registration to be completed ((see Art. 1 of the 2008 Amendments) can be safely disregarded, anyway. Furthermore, although the earlier draft version of this 2014 Law included the standard article on repeals of previous provisions inconsistent with the provisions of this Law, for some unexplained reasons that article (then numbered 43) was deleted. In the circumstances, the very few provisions of the previous 2007 Voters' registration Law which do not contradict the provisions of this new 2014 Law still remain current and, if appropriate, can be used to fill any gaps.

Note also that unlike the 2007 Law and its 2008 amendments, this 2014 Amending Law leaves the detailed procedures of the voters' registration process to be set out in Regulations issued by the National Electoral Commission (see, for example, Article 27(3), 29(1), 34(1&2), 35(4) and 40(2), and the Commission has already issued detailed Regulations (Voters Registration Implementation Regulations – No. 01/2015), some of which I refer to in the annotations of this translated text of the 2014 Law.

The biometric (iris recognition) nationwide voters' registration has now started in early January at Togdher, one of the six (electoral) regions of the country and has been completed within the 28 days allotted for each region, and it is now being carried in next region in line which is Awdal in the west.

Has made⁷ Amendments and Additions to the bill -
The Voters' Registration (Amendments and Additions) Law No. 37/2007

PART ONE: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1: Additions and Amendments⁸

These are additions and amendments to Law No. 37/2007 – Voters' Registration Law.

Article 2: Definitions

Unless otherwise indicated, the following terms shall have the following meaning:

Citizen: means every person who fulfils the conditions set out in the Citizenship Law - Law No: 22/2002⁹.

Citizenship registration: means the registration of every Somaliland citizen by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and the local government of the districts of the Republic of Somaliland.

Registration of the Voter¹⁰: means the citizens who have registered to vote at the elections of the state of the Republic of Somaliland.

The Register: means the register recording the particulars of the citizens' identity cards and the voters at every polling station.

The General Register: means the central register(s) placed at the headquarters of the Minister of Internal Affairs and the Electoral Commission, which shall record all the particulars of the citizens and the voters.

Voter: means every citizen who has the right to elect and be elected and who has also reached the voting age¹¹.

Regional or District Register: means the register of the Identity Card or the Voting Card at regional or district level.

Voting Card: means the card issued, after registration, to the voter.

Identity Card: means the card confirming citizenship (*teesarada*¹²).

⁷ This refers to the various changes made to the bill after its return from the House of Elders (HoE). Normally in any new Law, the House of Representatives (HoR) usually states here also that it has passed the Law, which it did, for the second and last time, on 6 December 2014 on a vote of 39 for, 1 against and 2 abstaining. The HoR previously approved the bill on 30 September 2014 (on a vote of 64 for, 1 against and 1 abstaining) before it forwarded it to the House of Elders in early October 2014. There was considerable controversy at the House of Elders about the 'correctness' of the version of the HoR passed bill that was forwarded to them as it was apparently alleged by some of the HoR members that the final text of the bill forwarded to the HoE did not reflect the final resolution voted upon at the HoR. The HoE then stopped the consideration of bill on 14 October 2014 and referred it to one of its committees, but also sent, on 19 October 2014, written queries to the HoR whose Chairman responded promptly in writing by refuting the allegations.

The bill was finally approved by the HoE on 2 December 2014. On its return to the HoR, the bill was approved on 6 December 2014 (on a vote of 39 for and 1 abstention). The President then signed the bill into Law on 23 December 2014, and, as set out in Article 46, the Law came into force on its publication in the Official Gazette, which was on 3 January 2015.

⁸ This title of the article is as set out in the final Law with the word 'additions' coming before 'amendments'.

⁹ English language translation of the 2002 Somaliland Citizenship Law.

¹⁰ Perhaps this should have been plural - 'voters'.

¹² 'Teesarada' is a Somalised version of the Italian term 'tessera', meaning 'card', which was widely used in Somalia before the 1960 union of Somaliland and Somalia and the extension of the practice of the local government issued identity card for access to any governmental service. Somaliland did not have an Identity Card system before the union with Somalia and there was therefore no Somali language term for this type of Commission: means the National Electoral Commission.

Party Representative: means the member which a party nominates as its representative at the voters' registration stations.

Observers: means international and local observers who ascertain the proper conduct of the elections¹³.

Constitution: means the Constitution of the Republic of Somaliland.

Ministry: means the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Somaliland.

Article 3: Scope of application

These additions and amendments shall govern the registration of citizens and the registration of voters of the state of Somaliland, which shall be the respective responsibilities of the Ministry of Internal Affairs/the districts local government and the National Electoral Commission, and shall be fulfilled in the sequence they are mentioned in this Article¹⁴.

Article 4: Somaliland National Registers of Voters¹⁵

1. The state of (the Republic of) Somaliland shall have a Citizens' Register in which every citizen *born to*¹⁶ Somaliland shall be recorded.

2. The state of (the Republic of) Somaliland shall have a Voters' Register in which every citizen who has the right to elect or be elected¹⁷, as set out in the Constitution and the other laws of the country¹⁸, is registered.

document. The formal term used in this Law is 'Kaadhka Aqoonsiga', which literally means the 'Card which enables one to be recognised', shortened to 'Identity Card' – in this case the recognition is that one's identity as a citizen of the Republic of Somaliland.

¹⁶ In Somali 'u dhashay' which means belonging to by birth rather than 'born in' Somaliland. It is phrase used in connection with belonging to a place or to a clan/sub clan. As stated, however, in Article 2 (Definitions) a Somaliland citizen is any person who fulfils the conditions in the 2002 Citizenship Law which includes persons who may not have been 'born to' or 'born in' Somaliland but have acquired citizenship under the relevant acquisition provisions of the 2002 Law. This clause, therefore, has to be read simply as 'every Somaliland citizen' without the additional qualification of being 'born to' and the meaning of a 'Somaliland citizen' is amply set out in Article 4 of the Constitution and the 2002 Citizenship Law issued under Article 4\(2\) of the Constitution. This an example of the various drafting errors in this Law.

¹⁷ This wording related to candidates for elections was also in Article 4 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law, but interestingly the numerous requisite conditions, in the electoral (and local government) laws as well the Constitution, for candidacy to elected public office do not expressly include a requirement to be in the Voters' Register. After all, the Register is about the electors and not about 'the elected'.

3. The two Registers referred to in (the preceding) clauses 1 and 2 shall be documents kept in electronic format and in registers, and shall contain all the particulars obtained from each citizen at the time of his/her registration as a citizen or as a voter.

Article 5: Ownership of the Registers

1. The Registers are national assets belonging to the state of the Republic of Somaliland.¹⁹
2. Every political party shall have the right to observe the establishment, implementation and publication of the lists of the Voters' Register.²⁰

Article 6: Persons who cannot be registered

1. Persons who are forbidden to be registered as citizens are indicated in the Citizenship Law – Law No. 22/2002.²¹
2. The following persons shall not be registered as voters:
 - a) Any person suffering from mental incapacity²².

¹⁸ For potential electors, Article 22(2) of the Constitution states that everyone who fulfils the requirements of the law shall have the right to vote. The relevant provisions are Article 5 of the 2002 Local & Presidential Elections Law and Article 5 of the 2005 Parliamentary Election Law. For example, Article 5 of the latter Law states that the conditions relating to any voter are that:

1. He must be a patrial citizen of Somaliland or a naturalised citizen in accordance with the Citizenship Law.
2. He must not be aged less than 16 years during the year the elections are being held.
3. He must be free and not in prison on the date of the election.

Article 5 of the earlier 2002 Law is in similar terms, but did not include “naturalised citizens”, which, in my opinion, was an oversight as Article 8 of the Somaliland Constitution confirms the equality of citizens. Naturalised citizens (as well as citizens by registration, or however lese acquired under the 2002 Citizenship Law) are therefore entitled to be registered as voters.

¹⁹ The corresponding article relating to the voters' register only, (Article 6) in the 2007 Voters' Registration Law includes the following additional provision which, subject to confidentiality of the Registers in Article 14 of this Law, still appears to be in force as it has not been replaced by a provision of this Law addressing the public access to some or parts of the voters' register that do not relate to identifiable particulars of the individual registrants:

'The Register is open to the public. Every citizen has the right to consult the Register for any information that he needs, which relates to electoral matters.' (My underlining)

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 14 of this Law, there may well still be a corresponding statutory duty on the National Electoral Commission to devise and set up procedures for making it possible for the public to access and consult the non-confidential parts of the Voters' Register, whilst also fulfilling its other statutory duty under Article 14 of this Law to safeguard the personal particulars of the registered voters.

²¹ This unnecessarily convoluted clause simply means that the Citizenship Law defines persons who are citizens and therefore it follows that those who do not qualify as citizens are not eligible for registration as citizens (or voters). A simple wording of 'persons who are not citizens of the Republic of Somaliland are not eligible for registration' in this clause would have sufficed.

²² This clause 2 re-produces Article 10 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law and I have therefore reiterated here the comments I made then on this clause 2(b). This mental incapacity disqualification provision is not reflected in the electoral laws and, in my view, is far too imprecise that it is likely to fall foul of constitutional provisions relating to equality of treatment (Article 8(1)) and the right to participate in political life and to vote (Article 22) unless clearer procedures are laid down for an objective identification of persons who lack capacity in civil law because of mental impairment. In general, Article 45(1) of the 1974 Civil Code states that 'a person lacking discernment, due to young age, mental impairment or insanity is incapable of exercising his civil

- b) Convicted and remand²³ prisoners.
- c) Foreigners staying in the country.
- d) Any person who has not reached the registration qualifying age²⁴ (who is below the age of maturity [?]²⁵).

Article 7: Custody of the Registration and the production of the final lists rights', but it should be noted that neither Article 5 of the 2002 Local & Presidential Elections Law (as amended) nor Article 5 of the 2005 Parliamentary Election Law include mental incapacity as a condition limiting the right to vote (see footnote 11 above). The introduction of such a disqualification in this voter registration law therefore needs to include (or have added to it in Regulations) clear and unequivocal criteria for ascertaining mental incapacity, otherwise, if this is left exclusively to registration officers, who have no standing or expertise to adjudge mental incapacity, this could be seen as an unreasonable restriction of a right protected under both the Constitution and international human rights conventions (see, for example Article 25 of the ICCPR 1966 and Article 21 of the UDHR). Overall, any restrictions on the right to vote must be reasonable, objective and proportionate, and, in the case of persons who may be of unsound mind and are incapable of understanding the nature and significance of voting, a simple objective criteria meeting this test can be adopted, with the agreement of all the parties, by the Electoral Commission, under its general power to issue Regulations under Article 45 of this new Amending Law.

1. The Ministry of Internal Affairs is responsible for the custody, safekeeping and production of the final list of the registration of citizens.

²³ Again I reiterate my previous comment on the identical Article 10(2) of the 2007 Voter Registration Law. As this relates to persons who are in prison on remand during the registration period, this follows the broadly drawn Article 5(3) of the 2002 Election Law and Article 5(3) of the 2005 Election Law which exclude anyone who is in prison on the polling day from voting. The automatic disqualification of all remand prisoners from the whole registration process may need to be looked at again by parliament when this law is reviewed as some of these persons may well be free to vote by the polling day. Perhaps, the meantime, this can be addressed administratively by the detaining authorities who might be in a better position to decide during registration periods, the remand prisoners who might be able and allowed to register as they are likely to be free to vote later at the polling date.

²⁴ The voter 'registration qualifying' age is of course slightly different from the 'voting qualifying' age. Article 5(2) of the 2001 Elections Law, and the same numbered Article of the 2005 Election Law, deal with the latter and both set the voting qualifying age as '16 years during the year the elections are being held' – a rather imprecise wording which is grounded on the fact that birth registration was never universally adopted and maintained and the traditional age counting was based on the seasons of year rather on specific calendar dates/years. Nonetheless anyone who is likely to be 16 at the polling day is therefore entitled to be registered as a voter, and so the voter 'registration qualifying age' was addressed in Article 21 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law as follows:

"If the citizen is aged less than the qualifying age of voting at the registration period but will reach the qualifying age at the date of the election, he shall be registered and issued with a Voting card".

As I have repeatedly pointed out in my commentaries of the previous electoral laws, it is important that the NEC adopts clear and unequivocal procedures for registration officers to follow when dealing with persons aged between 15 and 16 years, otherwise these uncertainties might perpetuate the previous problems of underage registration/voting or, perhaps in some cases, due to unforeseen postponements of polling dates, disenfranchise some young persons. Note also that under Article 25 of the 2007 Law the information supplied by parents about the age of their offspring was considered as the main determining factor – a matter which is now also addressed in Article 44 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations.

²⁵ [Question mark added]. This is another drafting error in this Law. The reference to 'age of maturity' (qaangaadh) in parenthesis, as set out in the Law, is totally irrelevant and unnecessary. Both the age of voters' registration and the age of voting are set by Law and have nothing to do with the imprecise 'maturity age' phrase. In fact, Article 44(2) of the Civil Code states that 'the age of majority of a person is fixed at eighteen years in accordance with the Gregorian calendar', but, on the other hand the more recent 2007 Juvenile Justice Law mentions a different definition for age of maturity, meaning 'any person who has reached 15 years of age exhibiting the signs of majority' but then adds also 'and any person who has reached 18 years of age if s/he does not show any signs of maturity'. This reference to 'maturity' (which appeared also in the earlier versions of the bill) should be deleted in the earliest revision of this Law.

2. The Commission is responsible for the custody, safekeeping and production of the final list of the voters' registration 6 months²⁶ before every election polling day.

Article 8: Persons who are unable to sign

Any person who is unable to sign the Registration Form, shall affix his left thumb print on it. If he is disabled (and is unable to use his left thumb), he could use his right thumb, but if he has neither, he shall use one of his fingers. If he has none of his thumbs and fingers, the Registration Officer shall sign, on his behalf, and this act shall be recorded in the Registration Form²⁷.

Article 9: Procedure for securing the registration materials

1. On conclusion of the registration activities of each day, all the materials used for the registration shall be returned to the District Office. If this is not done, it is the duty of the District Registration Officer to inform the police as quickly as possible and to ask that the officer responsible for this failure be arrested and brought before him. If the failure is due to negligence or malice, the District Officer shall dismiss summarily the officer responsible for the failure or, taking into account the circumstances and the gravity of the criminal offence, the officer may be punished under the provisions of the Penal Code²⁸.

2. Where there is lack of transport, the Registrar²⁹ shall be responsible for the registration materials and shall forward them to the District Registrar once a week³⁰. However, the Registration Officer shall be responsible (also) for the recording of all the daily registration activities and the safeguarding of the registers.

3. The daily activities of the registration station shall commence at six o'clock in the morning and shall end at six o'clock in the evening. If there is a delay, the reason for the delay shall be clearly stated in a report, and, if there is no justification for the delay, action must be taken by the District Registration Officer who shall so report to his/her superior officers. If, at six o'clock in the evening, there are still people who have not been registered yet, the relevant provisions of the Electoral Law³¹ shall be followed and these people shall continue to be registered until all those present (at six o'clock) are dealt with.

²⁶ This wording about the 6 months period appears to have been changed as the bill went through parliament. Some versions included the word 'within' 6 months, but that no longer matters as Article 26(2) is crystal clear in stating that the list of Voters' registration list shall be produced by the NEC six (6) months before the polling date, which accords with the wording in this Article 7(2).

²⁷ This Article replaces Article 20 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law.

²⁸ This could, as a minimum, amount to the offence of omission to perform official acts, under Article 255 of the Penal Code, which is punishable by imprisonment up to one year or by a fine of up to SL Sh.10,000,000. The Article covers any 'public officer or a person entrusted with a public service who wrongfully refuses, omits or delays to perform an act pertaining to his office or service'. Other articles of the Penal Code cover more serious offences committed by public officers or persons entrusted with a public service (see also footnotes to Article 44(4) below).

³¹ For example, Article 45 of the 2005 House of Representatives Election Law states as follows:

Article 10: Script format of the name of the citizen

The name of the citizen shall be recorded³² in even-sized letters which are not varied³³.

Article 11: Correction of inaccurate particulars

1. Any citizen who sees in the registration list erroneous particulars relating to him must inform the Registration Officer and must note it in, and sign, the appropriate form designed for this purpose. The Officer must make the correction as soon as possible and must forward a report, through the officers at district and regional level, to the officer in charge of the Register at national level.

2. When the period set for amendments and corrections expires, the National Registration Officer³⁴ shall prepare a detailed report on all the amendments and shall forward this information to the relevant official³⁵ for endorsement and approval that the amendments be entered in the Register.

Article 12: Type of the Identity Card and the Voting Card³⁶

The citizen Identity Card (National ID)³⁷ or the Voting Card shall be made of material which does not wear out or disintegrate easily and which cannot be amended or forged (hard material³⁸).³⁹

“1. Voting shall be completed within one day, beginning at 6.00 o'clock in the morning and finishing at 6.00 o'clock in the evening. However, electoral officeholders and party agents must be present at their assigned stations an hour before the voting starts.

2. If, at the finishing time for the voting, there are voters who are still queuing and have not yet voted, the finishing time shall be disregarded and voting shall continue until all such waiting voters cast their votes.”

For the 2016 Voters' Registration, the period of daily registration and the action to be at closing time at 6.00 o'clock in the evening is dealt with by Article 55 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations.

³² It is not clear whether this refers to the initial recording of the particulars of the person to be registered (i.e on the registration forms) or to the information to be put on the ID or Voting cards or to both.

³³ Presumably in their font and size.

³⁶ Although Article 2 (definitions) gives the Somali term “ to the term ‘Voting card’ in this Article and throughout this Law, the ‘Voting card’ is referred to, mistakenly, I think, in this title as ‘Warqadda Codbixinta’ meaning ‘Voting or ballot Paper’. To avoid confusion and to follow the definitions article, I have used consistently through this translation the term ‘Voting card’ (Kaadka Cod-bixinta). Having studied previously the early draft bill versions of this Law, it seems that the term ‘Voting Paper’ was previously used in the bill, even in its definitions article, but, in the final version of the Law, the definition article was amended without the consequential amendments being made to the term in the rest of the Law. Unfortunately this is another drafting error in this Law.

³⁸ The Somali word ‘laf’ which literally means ‘bone’ is used here and I have translated it as ‘hard material’. Such a freestanding word, on its own, should not appear in a law as it lacks clarity and precision required for interpreting the term. One can assume that this relates to the material which the cards must be made of, which

Article 13: Loss of the Identity Card or the Voting Card

1. Any person who loses his Identity Card or Voting Card or has it damaged may ask the officers responsible for them (for a replacement), and, when so requested, the officers shall, on verifying the reasons for the loss, give the person a new Identity Card or Voting Card⁴⁰ which contains the previous particulars and reference.
2. A person whose Card is damaged is entitled, after production of the damaged Card, to its replacement.⁴¹
3. Any person who finds a citizen Identity Card (ID Card) or a Voting Card must take it to the nearest Police station or Local Government office.

Article 14: Protection of the citizen's and the voter's⁴² particulars

The information in the Registers is particularly confidential to the state and to each person who, as a citizen, has registered himself, and therefore -

1. It shall not, in any manner contrary to the law⁴³, be benefited⁴⁴ from nor transferred or amended.
2. Any person who unlawfully accesses it⁴⁵, gives away or steals it shall be punished with imprisonment of 3 to 5 years.⁴⁶

in all probability would be some sort of hard wearing plastic. This is another shortcoming of the way this Law was drafted.

³⁹ The earlier version of the bill included an additional clause (which was also in Article 32 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law in respect of Voting cards) and which stated: 'The Identity Card of the Voting card shall become invalid and shall not be accepted if it has been erased or has parts missing and is thereby illegible'. This obviously sensible provision has not appeared in the final version of the Law.

⁴¹ Note also Article 34 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law which included similar provisions as above but also states the additional underlined provision:

'Any person who loses his Voting card or has his card damaged may request a replacement from the Commission or its officers at the district or regional level. Having received the request and having confirmed the reasons for the loss, the Commission shall issue a new Voting card, and shall cancel the previous one so as to avoid fraud.' (Underlining added)

⁴² The Somali term used here, 'Codbixinta', means 'Voting', but this is likely to be an error and should read 'Voter' (Codbixiyaha).

⁴⁴ If a public officer or a person entrusted with a public service benefits from the disclosure of official information which ought to be secret (confidential), then this could amount to corruption under the various Penal Code offences in Book II, Part II, Chapter I – Crimes by Public Officers against the Public Administration – and/or Crimes of Individuals against the Public Administration, if the offences are committed or instigated by members of the public.

3. The proceedings of such case(s) shall be conducted under the Criminal Procedure Code.⁴⁷
4. The information about the citizen may be disclosed to the security agencies if the disclosure is necessary for the security and public order of the state and the citizens, but can only be so disclosed if a law makes it obligatory or a competent court so orders.
5. It is forbidden for the information about the citizens and voters to be forwarded to a foreign country⁴⁸.

Article 15: Acquisition of more than one Identity Card or one Voting Card

1. It is forbidden for any citizen to obtain more than one Identity Card or more than one Voting Card.⁴⁹
2. If a citizen obtains fraudulently, amends, (or) forges an Identity Card or a Voting Card or more, he shall incur the punishment set out in this Law⁵⁰.

PART TWO: [No title, but this Part deals with Citizenship Registration]

Article 16: Citizenship Registration

When the Citizenship confirmation registration is being undertaken, the (entitlement to) Somaliland citizenship of the person must be verified in accordance with the provisions of the Citizenship Law No. 22/2002⁵¹.

Article 17: Verification of the citizen

The verification of the citizen(ship) shall be conducted as follows:

⁴⁷ This is an unnecessary clause as the CPC applies to all criminal cases.

⁴⁹ This will be an offence under Article 44 of this Law, but even if the possession of more than one card does not fall within the offences in Article 44, it is likely to amount to an offence under the Penal Code - Articles 366 to 382 of the Penal Code deal with offences of falsification of documents by public officers and individuals.

⁵¹ Translated copy of the Law is available at this link: http://www.somalilandlaw.com/citizenship_law.htm

1. Any person wishing to be registered (as a citizen) shall have his identity verified by a Sultan⁵², an Akil⁵³, a member (of one) of the two House of Parliament or of the Districts Councils, a village Head, a person engaged in business in the district, (or) a village prayer leader, and (then) approved by a Court Representative after he has administered an oath to the relevant above mentioned verifier.
2. When the citizenship of the person registering himself is confirmed, the officer at the centre⁵⁴ shall enter the particulars of the citizen in the official Registration Form, which shall entitle the citizen to be issued with an Identity Card.

Article 18: Citizenship registration process

The beginning of the process of the registration of citizens shall be based on (the steps set out in) the following provisions which must be finalised:

1. When the Identity Card registration is being conducted, the person's (entitlement to) Somaliland citizenship must be verified.
2. When the citizenship of the person to be registered is verified, his particulars shall be entered in the official form.
3. Any person whose citizenship has been verified shall be issued, in the same place, with an Identity Card.⁵⁵
4. Any person who is unsuccessful in having (one of) the persons referred to in clause 1 of Article 17 verify his citizenship shall be informed to bring with him a well-known person owning immovable (real) property in the district/country, who can verify that the person is a Somaliland citizen and can pledge his property as surety.

Article 19: Procedure for the registration of the citizen

Before the registration station is opened every day, the officers of the centre shall:

1. check that they are all present and sign the registration materials whilst recording the reference number of the Registration Form on which they will be working in that day;
2. when the work for the day is concluded, confirm the number of citizens registered during that day in writing signed by all the officers; (and)
3. record all the incidents they face during that day.
4. Every polling station⁵⁶ shall become a citizen registration station.

Article 20: Implementation of the citizenship registration

⁵² Traditional leader.

⁵³ Akils are accredited and registered as traditional leaders of their respective communities, by the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

⁵⁵ The earlier version of this clause stated that the person shall be issued with a 'provisional' Identity Card, at this stage, but that was deleted in the final version of the Law.

⁵⁶ This clause was added to the Law in its last stages. As the citizenship registration is going to be an ongoing scheme, it was by no means clear why the separate citizenship registration (Identity Card Scheme) conducted by the Ministry of Internal Affairs should need to be linked to previous polling stations.

Whilst utilising all the various different forms of media available in the country -

1. the period specified for the registration of citizens and all the information the citizens need to know shall be published and disseminated; (and)
2. citizens must also be educated about and given guidance on the importance of the registration of citizenship.

Article 21: Citizenship registration form

The registration form shall serve as the basis of the citizen Identity Card registration, and shall have recorded on it, as a minimum, the following particulars of the citizen:

1. The name of the citizen in four⁵⁷.
2. The name of the mother in three⁵⁸.
3. The year and place of birth.
4. Male or female (gender).
5. Marital Status.
6. The signature of the citizen or an indication that he is unable⁵⁹ to sign.
7. The unique number of the citizenship registration.

Article 22: Particulars recorded on the Identity Card

The Citizenship Identity Card shall have recorded on it the following particulars:

1. The name in four⁶⁰.
2. The date of birth.
3. The photograph of the citizen.
4. The number of the Identity Card (ID Card).
5. The place of birth
6. Gender (Male or female).
7. It shall contain⁶¹ –
 - a) the information of the eye⁶² scan of the citizen, (and)
 - b) the information of the finger-prints of the citizen.

Article 23: Staff for the registration of verified citizenship

1. In order to implement the citizenship registration, the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall appoint employees possessing expertise and skills in the implementation of the registration, who will include the following:

⁵⁷ 'Afaran' in Somali. Somaliland's patronymic naming system (with no surnames) involves the use of the first three (or four) names of any person (male or female), which indicate his (or her) first name followed by the first names of the father, grandfather, and great grandfather (and so on). In practice only the first two or three (or occasionally, four) names are used. The fourth is added sometimes, for official purposes, to distinguish persons who may have the same first three names.

⁵⁸ See the preceding footnote – 'Saddaxan' in Somali i.e the first three names, which is not unusual when people use popular names.

⁵⁹ See also Article 8 of this Law.

⁶⁰ See the footnote relating to Article 21(1).

⁶¹ This clause 7 was added to the bill in its last stages.

⁶² This sub clause does not specify 'iris' or 'retinal' eye scans. Incidentally, see also clause 26(4) of this Law which deals with eye (ocular) scan identification, which, in respect of the voters' registration shall involve 'iris' scanning.

- a) The Identity Card National Register Officer who shall be responsible for the management of the Identity Card Register and shall also be the head of the Identity Card Registration Section whose headquarters shall be at the Ministry of Internal Affairs.
- b) The Identity Card Register Officer for each District
- c) The Identity Card Register Officer for each Region⁶³.

2. The employees appointed for the various Identity Card registration offices must be Somalilanders who are independent of politics and are chosen for their expertise and knowledge necessary for the post they shall hold.

3. Before any such employee is appointed, the following shall be specified:

- a) The conditions and skills required of the person to be recruited to the post;
- b) the procedure for the selection of the employees; and
- c) the duties of each person (each post) in respect of the conduct of the registration activities.

Article 24: The functional role of the Ministry in the citizenship registration

The Ministry shall:

1. verify the citizenship of the person to be issued with an Identity Card (National ID⁶⁴);
2. print, organise, and put into operation the register verifying citizenship.
3. The Ministry of Internal Affairs shall issue Regulations⁶⁵ for the implementation of the citizenship registration.

PART THREE [No title but this Part deals with Voters' Registration]

Article 25: Voters' registration

⁶³ Under Article 5 and 6 of the Regions and Districts Law, Law No: 23 of 2002, as amended in 2007, Somaliland is divided into six regions and 42 districts. In 2008/9 presidential decrees announced the creation of seven additional regions and no less than 16 new districts. In 2014, the current President announced another new region and one new district. None of these new regions and districts has, as yet, been approved by Parliament under the assessment procedures set out in the 2002 (2007) Law and they are disregarded in connection with in elections and voter registration which is still based on the previous six regions (and their districts).

⁶⁴ See footnote on Article 12.

⁶⁵ I am not aware of any new Regulations issued after this Law came into force on 3 January 2015. However, a Presidential Decree \(No. 0378/032014\) dated 20 March 2014 established a Steering Committee (of 7 Ministers) and a Task Force (mainly public officials) for the citizenship registration. Also, the Regulations on Citizens' Registration \(Presidential Decree No. 04/062014\) were issued on 8 June 2014 (and gazetted on 5 July 2014) well before this Law came into force. Citizenship registration has been conducted previously in 2008 under Regulations issued by the Minister of Internal Affairs on 15 October 2008 at the time when the last voter registration in 2009 was being undertaken so as to confirm the citizenship of the potential voters' and provide them with identity cards. The statutory authority for such citizens' registration was the Citizenship Law (Article 3(1)) (and the citizenship requirement in the electoral laws) as well as Article 7 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law which specifically stated that the confirmation of citizenship and issue of Identity Cards shall be undertaken at the same time as the voters' registration. Nonetheless, this Law now provides a solid statutory basis for citizenship registration although, in view, there ought to have been a separate law(s) for not only citizenship registration which is currently limited to citizens aged 16 or above, but wider civil registration of the whole population, as well as registers of births, deaths, marriages etc. (I understand the Ministry of Internal Affairs is working on these wider civil registration issues).

1. Any person wishing to register as a voter in the national elections (Presidential and Parliamentary⁶⁶) and in the Local Government elections must possess a Citizenship Identity Card.

2. In the event that it is not possible for some of the citizens to acquire beforehand the citizen Identity Card, the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall verify their citizenship at the station⁶⁷ where Voting Cards are being issued⁶⁸.

Article 26: Voters' Registration procedure

1. Only a person who is a citizen and registered in the Voters' Register can vote at the nation's elections⁶⁹.

2. The Voters' Register list shall be issued by the National Electoral Commission six (6) months⁷⁰ before the time (date) of the election.

3. The registration of the voters shall not be made conditional on payment of fees or on other financial conditions or expenditure incurred by the voter.

4. Every citizen registering with the National Electoral Commission as a voter, in accordance with the law, shall undergo a Unique Biometric Identification⁷¹ process involving a picture scan of the citizen's eye.⁷²

⁶⁷ The earlier versions of the bill included only clause 1 in this Article and there were considerable concerns that as the Citizenship Registration was planned to be completed before the voter registration started, persons who have failed to register their citizenship may be barred from the forthcoming voter registration. Clause 2 was therefore added to the Law so that for those people, the verification of citizenship can be undertaken during the forthcoming voter registration exercise. Note that the verification at the voter registration stations was previously used under Article 7 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law and the procedures set out therein.

⁷⁰ There has been a considerable controversy about the need for this six months period, which is also set out in Article 13 of this Law (see above). This 6 months period stipulation has been severely criticised for creating an unnecessary delay in the polling dates after the final register/list have already been finalised and published. The amended 6 months stipulations were in 2007 Law (Articles 12(1) and 13) were worded differently and, for example, the latter Article 13 stated that the Commission must open the (future) voter registration process six months prior to the polling day for a period of not less than one month for the updating of the Voters' Register. Once the current (2016) voter registration is conducted properly in readiness for the planned 27 March 2017 elections, the Commission will be in a better position in 2017 to review before the following (local districts councils) elections whether this six months deadline needs to be changed to a shorter more flexible period.

Article 27: Functions of the National Electoral Commission

Without prejudice to the functions and duties of the National Electoral Commission set out in other laws -

1. it shall implement in the country a voters' registration process before the date of an election.
2. The National Electoral Commission is responsible for the arrangement, implementation and publication of the voters' register.
3. The National Electoral Commission shall issue regulations, decisions, procedures and directives for the implementation of the voters' registration.⁷³

Article 28: Announcement of the Voters' registration

The President shall announce the date when the voters' registration shall start⁷⁴. The announcement shall be issued as a presidential decree within fifteen days after the President receives the proposal of the National Electoral Commission.⁷⁵

Article 29: Implementation of the voters' registration

1. The period⁷⁶ of the conduct of the voters' registration and its procedure shall be set out in Regulations⁷⁷ issued by the National Electoral Commission.

⁷¹ The term 'Unique Biometric Identification' is stated in English in the Somali text of the Law.

⁷² This clause was added to the bill in its last stages. The clause does not specify the type of eye (or ocular) scan, but it has been reported that the NEC has already tested 'iris' (and not retina) recognition scans. The corresponding provision relating to biometric identification in respect of the Citizenship Identity Card is Article 22(7) of this Law.

⁷³ Note also that Article 45 of this Law also gives the NEC power to issue Regulations, Codes of Conduct and Directives.

⁷⁴ Earlier, on 12 April 2015, the President initially announced that the voters' registration exercise shall commence on 21 July 2015, as was then recommended to the President by the Electoral Commission on 09 April 2015. This has since been revised when on 3 January 2016, a Presidential Decree (JSL/M/DEC/249-3756/012016) stated that, on the basis of a recommendation received from the Electoral Commission on 2 January 2016, the voters' registration shall start on 16 January 2016 at the Togdher region.

⁷⁵ This clause is identical to Article 12(6) of the 2007 Voter Registration Law. The first such presidential decree was issued in 23 July 2008 and announced that the (core) voter registration process would start on Tuesday, 14 October 2008, but because of various interruptions and delays, the then Register was only finalised in early 2010 and was only used for one election in June 2010. The earlier text of the 2014 Bill read that the NEC shall, after consulting the national parties, announce the date the voter registration was due to commence and shall so inform the President, which has since amended (as above) to accord with 2007 provision.

⁷⁷ Voters' Registration Implementation Regulations No. 01/2015 of 2 January 2016 (referred to hereafter in these footnotes as the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations)

2. Whilst utilising all the various media in the country, the Commission shall print and publish information about the period set for the voters' registration and all the relevant details the citizens need to be aware of.

3. It shall be the duty of the Commission to educate and also provide guidance to the citizens about the importance of the voters' registration.

4. In order to fulfil this duty, the Commission shall prepare, as part of the conduct of the registration, programmes aimed at educating and prompting the public to prepare for the voters' registration.⁷⁸

Article 30: Voters' Registration form

The registration form shall form the basis of the process of voters' registration and the following particulars shall be recorded therein⁷⁹:

1. The name of the voter in four⁸⁰ written in the same way as recorded in Identity Card.
2. The year⁸¹ and place of birth.
3. Male or female.
4. The signature of the voter or an indication that the voter is unable to sign.
5. The unique number of the registration of the voter.⁸²
6. The reference number of the registration of the voter.
7. The Identity Card number (ID Card).

Editor's Note: Article 34 gives the National Electoral Commission to issue detailed Regulations for the voters' registration and how the registrant may designate the polling station s/he wishes to cast his vote. Article 8(10) of the 2007 Voters' Registration Law also gave express power to the Commission to add to Registration Form any additional information it deems necessary for the conduct of a democratic election. Article 56 of the 2015 Regulations issued by the Commission, therefore, states that the particulars of the voter to be recorded in the Registration Form are as follows:*

- a) The name of the voter, in four⁸³, and, if s/he carries an Identity Card, recorded as written in the Identity Card.*
- b) The name of the mother, in three⁸⁴.*

⁷⁸ Clauses 2-4 of the Article are re-productions of clauses 3 to 5 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law (as amended).

⁷⁹ Note that Article 8(10) of the 2007 Voter Registration Law also included in the list of particulars on the Voter Registration form the polling station in which the voter will cast his vote and the photograph of the voter. More importantly, it also added that 'the Commission has the power to add to the form, in consultation with the national parties, any additional information it deems necessary for the conduct of a democratic election'. See, therefore, Article 56 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations which lists 8 items that need to be on Voter's Registration Form which include the ones listed in this Article 30, but differs in including the name of the mother of the person, the telephone number (if he has one) and the name and number of the polling station s/he will vote.

⁸⁰ See the footnote to Article 21(1) above.

⁸² In the 2008 Amendments to the 2007 Law (Article 5), it was decided that the unique number of the registration of the voter shall be the same as the number of the Identity Card of the citizen, but this is now dealt with by Article 56 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations.

⁸³ See the footnote to Article 21(1) above.

- c) The year and place of birth.
- d) Male or female.
- e) Telephone number, if s/he has one.
- f) The number of the Identity Card, if s/he has one.
- g) The name and the specific number of the polling station that s/he will cast his/her vote.
- h) Signature of the voter or an indication that s/he is unable to sign.

Article 31: Particulars recorded in the Voting Card

The Voters' Card shall contain the following particulars⁸⁵:

1. The name, in four⁸⁶.
2. The photograph of the voter.
3. The number of the Identity Card.
4. The reference number of the registration of the voter.
5. The year of birth.
6. Gender (Male or female).
7. The Polling Station where the voter shall cast his vote.

Article 32: Correction of and disagreements about age

The age of the voter shall be decided on the basis of the age indicated in the citizen's Identity Card⁸⁷.

Article 33: Staff for the voters' registration

1. In order to implement the registration, the Commission shall appoint staff⁸⁸, possessing expertise and skills in the implementation of the registration, who shall include⁸⁹ the following⁹⁰:

⁸⁴ See preceding footnote. In this sub clause relating to the registrant's mother, only 3 names are required – first name followed by the father's and grandfather's first names.

⁸⁵ These are also re-produced (with no changes) in Article 68(1) of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations.

⁸⁶ See the footnote to Article 21(1) above.

⁸⁷ Note though in situations relating to persons who have not yet obtained an Identity Card and whose citizenship and age have to be verified at the voter registration station in line with the provisions of Article 25(2) of this Law, any concerns about age will have to be dealt with, presumably, initially as part of the process of verifying the citizenship of the person. Article 25 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law headed 'dispute about the age of a voter' addressed this situation as follows: 'If a Ministry officer' or a court officer, who dealt with citizenship verification matters under the 2007 Law registration procedures 'is not sure of or have concerns about whether a citizen has reached the qualifying age for voting, the age confirmed by the citizen's parent shall be accepted, but failing this, the officers at the [Voter Registration] centre shall reach a decision about it'. This time round no court officers are involved in the voter registration process, but Article 44 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations addresses the situation by following, to some extent the 2007 Law provisions and confirms that other identification documents indicating age may be looked at and failing that the parent's information, if available, shall be accepted. However, if none of those options are available, the registration station chairman shall reach a decision about the citizen's age. Under age voting (and voter registration in 2009) has been a problem in the past. This will, no doubt, be compounded by the fact that in the first two months of current voters' registration that started on 16 January 2016, someone who is 14 years old and approaching or just under 15 years is entitled to be registered to vote at the 27 March 2017 elections, so long as s/he will be 16 year old before the polling day. See further the footnote to Article 6 of this Law - this was made clear in Article 21 of the 2007 Law but, alas, not as well in Article 6(2)(d) of this 2014 Law.

⁸⁸ Part Four (Articles 24 to 41) of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations deal in detail with Voters' Registration staff.

a) The Voters' Register Officer(s)⁹¹ who shall be responsible for the management of the Register and shall also act as head of the Voters' Card Section whose headquarters shall be the National Electoral Commission.

b) The Voters' Registration Officer for each centre.

c) The Voters' Registration Officer for each district.

d) The Voters' Registration Officer for each region⁹².

2. Employees recruited for the various Voters' Registration offices must be Somalilanders⁹³ who are independent of politics and who shall be chosen for their expertise and knowledge required for the post(s) they shall hold.

3. Prior to their recruitment, the following shall be specified:

a) The conditions and skills required of the person to be recruited to a post;

b) the employee selection procedures to be followed; and

c) the work duties of every person (every post) in the conduct of the Voters' Registration functions.

Article 34: Voters' registration procedures and stations

1. The National Electoral Commission shall issue in detailed Regulations⁹⁴ the procedures for the voters' registration and the registration stations⁹⁵ at the district and region⁹⁶.

⁸⁹ This means that the NEC has the power to appoint more employees, other than those listed in this Article, should they deem it necessary for the performance of their statutory voter registration duties. For example, in the very early draft version of these Amendments, as proposed then by the NEC, included in the article corresponding to this one a clause stating that 'in districts with large population, the Commission may appoint for the District Registration Office more than one District Officer so that the voter registration operations can be conducted properly'.

⁹⁰ The equivalent article (Art. 11(4)) in the 2007 Voter Registration Law also added that 'the administrative structure of the (voter) registration centres shall reflect that set out in the national elections law' for voting. The relevant law was the 2001 Electoral Law (as amended), Article 10 of which set out the overall structure of the electoral offices, and the composition of staffing of the electoral offices at the various levels are set out in Article 18 (region), Article 17 (district) and Article 16 (polling station).

⁹¹ This word is in plural in the text of this clause although the rest of the clause refers to the section 'Head'.

⁹² See footnote on Article 23(1)(c) above relating to Article 5 of the Regions & Districts Law.

⁹³ i.e. Somaliland citizens.

⁹⁴ See the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations.

⁹⁵ This Law leaves it to the Commission Regulations to set the details and locations of the voters' registration station. The lists of registration stations (by region and district) are now set out in detail as a schedule to the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations and are based on the polling stations used for the last nation-wide district councils elections in 2012.

In contrast, for the purposes of the 2009 voters' registration, Article 14 of the 2007 Voters' Registration Law, Article 14, stated:

'Taking note of the experiences of the previous elections -

a) The Commission shall specify the polling stations and shall establish a system of identifying each polling station by allocating each one a unique code.

b) Every voter shall be registered at a specific polling station.

c) At election polling day, every voter shall cast his vote at only the polling station where he was registered.' (This last requirement was reinforced in the 2001 electoral law when it was election was based on a voters' Register in 2010 – see Article 5(d) insertion to the effect that the voter must be 'registered at the polling station that he is casting his vote unless he is a member of the polling station officials, the agents of the political parties at the station or the members of the police force that have been formally assigned to keep the order at the polling station.)

Following the passage of the 2007 Law (which came into force in June 2008), and before the beginning of the nation-wide (core) voter registration exercise on 14 October 2008, the NEC announced, in August 2008, that

2. The Commission shall, in the same way, issue Regulations setting out that the citizen may, *actually*⁹⁷, register himself at the station or town where he is present but may designate (then) the (polling) station where he will cast his vote⁹⁸.

Article 35: National Parties' Representatives (Observers) at the voters' registration

1. Each political party⁹⁹ shall appoint a representative to be sent to each registration station.

2. The representatives of the parties shall ensure that the registration activities are conducted in accordance with the law, no discrimination takes place, and that no citizen is unlawfully denied registration.¹⁰⁰

3. The representatives of the parties can register any complaints¹⁰¹ concerning these (*preceding*¹⁰²) matters.

4. The conditions for the selection and the period for the submission of the representatives of the parties (details) shall be set out in Regulations¹⁰³ issued by the Commission.

Article 36: Functions of the National Electoral Commission officer at the voters' registration station

1. The officer shall ask the voter to confirm that the particulars recorded in the citizenship form¹⁰⁴ are official.

there would be 985 polling stations which would act also as the voter registration stations as, by law, persons could only cast their vote at the polling station they were registered.

⁹⁶ The Commission has designated (as a Schedule to the 2015 Regulations) 1146 Voters' Registration Stations which are overwhelmingly the same as the 2012 nationwide local elections' polling stations with the exception of some adjacent polling stations in urban areas being combined as single registration centres where the registrants can then choose to which of the combined polling station they would prefer to be registered in line with Article 34(2) of this 2014 Law.

⁹⁸ Articles 56(1)(g) and 68(1)(g) of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations both signify the choice of the polling station that a registrant may cast his vote in the polling day.

⁹⁹ Under Article 9(2) of the Constitution, Somaliland can only have a maximum of three parties, and the current three parties (since 2012) are KULMIYE, UCID and Wadani.

¹⁰¹ Article 45(4) &(5) and Article 62(2) of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations deal with complaints from the political parties. Complaints are addressed by Article 18 and 19 of the Voters' Registration Code of Conduct for the Political Parties signed by the three political parties and the National Electoral Commission on 07 January 2016. This Code running into 22 articles is more extensive than the 2009 (10 February) Code for the last voter registration.

¹⁰² Presumably the matters referred to in the preceding clause.

¹⁰³ Articles 47 and 48 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations address these issues relating to the accreditation of both local and international observers.

¹⁰⁴ The reference to a citizenship 'form' here is not clear, but it might well the information recorded by the Ministry of Internal Affairs by a person who had no Citizenship Identity Card but had his citizenship confirmed

2. The officer shall then record the above mentioned particulars in the voters' registration form, and, also read it aloud to the voter.
3. The voter shall sign the voters' registration form or otherwise *follow the steps*¹⁰⁵ set out in Article 8 of this Law.

Article 37: Production and publication of the voters' lists

The National Electoral Commission shall issue voters lists¹⁰⁶, based on the list of names in the Register, which are necessary for the conduct of election. To be an official voters' list, each list must carry the seal of the National Electoral Commission.

Article 38: Production of the final voters' lists

1. After all amendments¹⁰⁷ are registered, the final list shall be prepared, which shall be the list from which the National Electoral Commission shall order the publication of all the other necessary lists required by law.
2. It is the duty of the National Electoral Commission to provide the Ministry of the Internal Affairs and the political parties the final voters' list(s).

Article 39: Distribution of Voting Cards

The Commission shall issue a Voting Card to every citizen who has registered.¹⁰⁸

PART FOUR: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

at the registration station. Anyone presenting a Citizenship Identity Card is already tendering an official document. On the other hand, this may be a formality so that the person can confirm verbally that the person did indeed tender the information in the form (or Identity Card). Incidentally this Article is similar to Article 18 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law (as amended).

¹⁰⁵ Article 8 relates to persons who are unable to sign the form.

¹⁰⁶ As set out further in Article 61 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations, these are initially produced as 'preliminary voters' lists' which shall be checked and, where necessary corrected to become the final lists covered by the following Article 38 of the Law. The comparable Article in the 2007 Law was Article 26 which has now been replaced by this Article 37 that requires the seal of the Commission, rather than a signature of a commissioner, for its verification.

¹⁰⁷ Unlike 2007 Voter Registration Law (as amended) which included Article 28 titled 'correcting erroneous information', this amending law does not address how the corrections/amendments of the particulars gathered might be made in cases where they may be errors, before the final lists are produced. However, as Article 34 and 45 of this Law empowers the NEC to issue detailed Regulations for the registration procedures, this is now addressed in, for example, Articles 62 to 65 of 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations which deals with procedures for complaints about the information in the preliminary lists.

¹⁰⁸ Article 30 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law which dealt with the distribution of Voters' Cards, but also stated the following:

'The Commission shall issue a voting card to every citizen who has registered. To exercise his right to vote, it is incumbent on a citizen to go to the (relevant) polling station whilst carrying his voting card.'

Article 40: Registration Activities Technical Committee¹⁰⁹

1. The Commission shall appoint a Technical Committee consisting of the Electoral Commission at national level, the Ministry of Internal Affairs and the three National Parties so that the technical aspects of the registration activities can be prepared and the registration activities can be co-ordinated.
2. The National Electoral Commission shall lay down in Regulations the powers and duties of the Technical Committee.

Article 41: Participation in the matters of security and public guidance relating to registration activities

On security matters during the registration period, the Police Force of the Republic of Somaliland shall, through the Ministry of Internal Affairs, assist the National Electoral Commission.¹¹⁰

Article 42: Observers

The (particulars of the) international and local observers or inspectors who are checking the proper conduct of the voters' registration activities shall be forwarded by the National Electoral Commission to the Ministry of Internal Affairs so that it can reach decisions about the entry into the country permissions.¹¹¹

Article 43: The duties of Law enforcement bodies

The Government, law enforcement agencies, the National Electoral Commission and the political parties shall have a duty to apply and implement this Law.

Article 44: Penalties for contraventions

¹⁰⁹ This is a new Article which was not previously in the bill, but was added at the last stages of the bill. It mirrors Article 36 of the 2007 Voter Registration Law. The latter, though, specified the number of the members as being 2 from the NEC, 2 from the Ministry and 3 from the three political parties. The first members of such Technical Committee members under the 2007 Law were announced on 9 October 2009 and the Committee was chaired by the then Deputy Chairman of the NEC. The new Technical Committee set up under this 2014 Law is now covered by Articles 9 to 13 of the 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations and have the same composition as above. The Regulations also cover, among other things, the functions and duties of the Technical Committee.

¹¹⁰ This is a reproduction of the Article 37 of the 2007 Law.

¹¹¹ This Article read previously in the Bill that 'international and local observers or inspectors who are checking the proper conduct of the voter registration activities shall be approved by the National Electoral Commission which shall consult the Ministry of Internal Affairs about security matters'. The current wording of the article is, however, now difficult to comprehend as the local observers would not, in any case, require permission to enter the country, and for foreigner observers, the entry formalities will be dealt with by the Immigration authorities (and visas are obtainable at the Somaliland legations abroad). The Ministry's role on security matters and that of the police and security forces is, however, a different matter. The appropriate body for making decisions about the suitability or otherwise of observers at voters' registrations or at elections must always be the Electoral Commission, who shall no doubt liaise with the security and immigration authorities, as appropriate, in respect of foreign international observers. The 2015 Voters' Registration Regulations deal with observers and the media in Article 48 and 49 respectively.

Any person who infringes¹¹² or contravenes any article or articles of this Law¹¹³ shall be punished (as follows):

1. Any person who registers himself more than once or gives false particulars about himself shall incur punishment of 3 months imprisonment¹¹⁴ and a fine of SL. Sh. 1 million Somaliland shillings.¹¹⁵
2. Any person who registers himself more than once shall lose the right to vote¹¹⁶ at an election until the next round of (voter) registration is reached.¹¹⁷

¹¹² The literal translation of the Somali word 'jabiya' is 'breaks', but I have preferred the term 'infringes'.

¹¹³ Although the Articles 40 to 43 and Article 45 of this Miscellaneous Part of the Law specifically relate to the Voter Registration and the NEC, the penalties Article 44 relates to contravention of 'this Law' and so, unless otherwise specified, the 'registration' referred to in its provisions relate to both the citizenship registration and the voters' registration.

¹¹⁴ Note that, unless the law prescribes otherwise, a judge passing a sentence of imprisonment of under one year is given a very limited and carefully prescribed discretion, under Article 112(3) of the Penal Code to allow an offender to convert the imprisonment into a fine so long as the offender 'has not been previously convicted of a crime with criminal intent' and the judge feels that the circumstances of the offence, the character of the offender and the other factors listed in Article 110 (which relate to both the gravity of the offence and the offender's criminal intent) to justify such a conversion. This decision is by no means automatic and the person must pay the alternate fine which is calculated, as set out in Article 112, as SL. Sh. 25,000 or a fraction thereof for every 1 day of imprisonment, and so a 30 day calendar month may be converted to SL Sh. 750,000. Note, in contrast, the 5 months prison term punishment under clause 3 of this Article relating to the different offence of registering whilst being a non-Somaliland citizen, cannot be converted into a fine as the clause expressly forbids such conversion (see the footnote below on Article 44(3)). (With the falling value of the shillings as compared to the dollar or other foreign currencies, the levels of fines would need to be revised again soon). Incidentally any other fines imposed on top of the prison term must also be paid at the same as the conversion of prison term.

¹¹⁵ As this is an offence created in this special law, it shall, under Article 14 of the Penal Code, take precedence over the provisions in the Penal Code that may apply to the circumstances of this offence. Indeed, as anyone who commits this offence has provided the Registration Officer with false information relating to their personal particulars, the relevant Penal Code article that would otherwise apply to these situations (Article 373) carries punishment of imprisonment of up to 2 years and not less than 3 months. It states:

Article 373 (False Certification of a Public Document by a Private Individual).

1. Whoever falsely certifies to a public officer, for inclusion in a public document, facts of which the document is intended to prove the truth, shall be punished with imprisonment up to two years.
2. The period of imprisonment shall not be less than three months in cases of false certification of documents relating to personal status [such as the identity of the person – my comment].

If there are aggravating circumstances (such as for example, those listed in Article 39 of the Penal Code), the person could be charged with the more serious offence under the Penal Code which could attract a heavier sentence than the one set out in this Law.

It is worthwhile noting that Article 33 of the 2007 Voters' Registration Law addressed specifically fraud and falsification offences and linked them to the Penal Code, by stating –

'No citizen may be issued with or can hold more than one voting card. If a card is obtained fraudulently or by means of false pretences or is issued to a voter through such means, or more than one card is possessed, this shall amount to a falsification of a public document. Any person (officials or voters) committing such acts shall attract punishment as set out in the Penal Code'.

The relevant Penal Code falsification of documents offences which cover both the offenders and any officials involved in the offences re set out in Articles 366 to 382 of the Code, and can be used if applicable to fill in the gaps not covered by the provisions of Article 44 of this Law.

¹¹⁶ Accessory (i.e. additional) penalties, including interdictions from voting and from public offices after convictions for some offences are also found in the Penal Code (Articles 101 to 108). This accessory punishment in this Article is, in effect, a loss of the right to be registered as a voter until the next voter registration round and will this time be limited, in practice, to loss of right to vote in the forthcoming March 2017 elections. Although this interdiction is a clear restriction of the person's constitutional right to vote (under Article 22(2) of the Constitution), such a voting right, as set out in Article 25, might be limited under a law 'protecting the public morals, the security of the country or the rights of other individuals'. The fraudulent abuse of the Voters' Register does indeed affect the rights of other citizens and widespread abuses can also lead to security problems. The test, therefore, is whether the temporary legal interdiction is a justifiable

3. Any person who is not a Somaliland citizen and who attempts¹¹⁸ to register shall incur punishment of 5 months imprisonment which cannot be converted into a fine¹¹⁹, a fine SL Sh. 2 million Somaliland Shillings¹²⁰ and deportation after completion of the prison sentence¹²¹.

proportionate response in a democratic society to address the problems of multiple voter registration that has already seen in the 2009 voters' registration and the subsequent 2010 election, after which the then Voters' Register was voided entirely.

Query: Does this accessory punishment also apply in connection with someone who has registered or attempted to register for an Identity Card more than once? Answer: No, in my view.

On the whole, the offences and penalties in this Article apply to both the registration of voters and that of the citizens, but this accessory punishment is specifically linked to the voting which follows the 2016 voter registration and seeks to deprive the right of participation in such voting by anyone eligible for voting who is convicted of the offence of registering (or attempting to register) as a voter. The citizenship registration happens to have started in 2014 and shall continue after the forthcoming (2017) election and such registration is not directly linked to any specific election, although of course citizenship (and age of not less than 16 years and not being not in prison on the date of the election – see Article(s) 5 of either the 2001 Election Law or the the 2005 Election Law) is a requirement of eligibility to vote. It seems, therefore, unlikely that Parliament intended that anyone who commits such an offence in the ever on-going citizenship registration scheme and serves the punishment set out in Clause 1 (3 months prison and fine) must also lose the right to be registered to vote for the following election that could be years away. The Law, clearly and correctly, in my view, does not deprive such offenders their right to register as citizens after serving their sentence (which is against international law, any way, for many reasons). Whilst the temporary deprivation of the right to vote at forthcoming election for anyone who abuses the voter registration for that election may be a proportionate response in a democratic society, depriving the right to vote from someone who abuses citizenship registration and is then punished, when other offenders who have committed more serious crimes and are no longer in prison (or have not been interdicted and lost their right to vote under Article 101(2a) of the Penal Code) are allowed to vote, illustrates the incongruity of such an accessory punishment, which will not meet the test of justifiable proportionate response in a democratic society that I have referred to above.

¹¹⁷ This penalty obviously relates only to citizens who have a right to vote.

¹¹⁸ The previous versions of the bill included two clauses (3 and 4) of this Article which dealt respectively with (a) attempts to register and (b) actual registration, with the former attracting punishment of 5 months imprisonment and a fine of 2 million SL Sh. (and deportation) whilst the latter attracted twice that punishment – 10 months imprisonment and a fine of 4 million SL Sh. (and deportation). As the previous Clause 4 dealing with the actual (and not attempted offence) has been deleted from the final version of the Law, even if the person succeeds in acquiring a voter's card, which s/he is plainly not entitled, then when discovered, s/he can still be charged with this offence, but if the registration has been effected, then in the absence of a specific offence of registering without being entitled to do so, a prosecution could still be mounted under the more serious Penal Code offence of Art. 373 – False certification of a public document by a private individual, which attracts punishment of (3 months) to 2 years (see footnote 114 above). There is also no reason why an order of deportation cannot be made also on completion of sentence. If an attempt merits such deportation, then a successful completion of the offence ought to also attract similar accessory punishment of deportation. In any case, deportation can also be ordered by the Minister under Art. 30 of the 1995 Somaliland Immigration Law (relating to undesirable foreigners).

¹²⁰ Under Article 113 of the Penal Code, if the person cannot or does not pay the fine, this will be converted to imprisonment of not more than 3 years for a crime, which in the case of this level of fine will be 1 day imprisonment for every SL Sh. 25,000 fine or a fraction thereof (Article 112) i.e a further 80 days

4. Any officer engaged in the registration who contravenes the provisions¹²² of this Law shall incur punishment of imprisonment of 3 to 5 years.¹²³
5. Any person who falsifies a Voting Card¹²⁴ or the Voters Register shall incur punishment of 3 to 5 years imprisonment.¹²⁵

(See also this footnote¹²⁶ on multiple offences by one offender– Editor)

Article 45: Power to issue Regulations

The Electoral Commission shall have the power to issue Regulations, Codes of Conduct and Directives that are not in conflict with the provisions of this Law.¹²⁷

Article 46: Coming into force

imprisonment. This further imprisonment shall end as soon as the person pays the fine ‘reduced by the sum of money corresponding to the duration of the detentive punishment already served’ (Article 113(2)).

¹²¹ And presumably also payment of the fine.

¹²² In the earlier versions of the bill, this Clause was more specific and read as follows: ‘Any officer engaged in the registration who wilfully facilitates the registration of or registers a person more than once shall incur punishment of imprisonment of 3 to 5 years’. It is unfortunate that there is such high minimum punishment for every type of contravention of this Law by an official as some minor procedural contraventions may not merit such punishment. It would have made sense to retain wording similar to that in the earlier versions of the bill which set out the different possible offences that may committed by officials. Note also, as set out below there are also various specified offences in the Penal Code that can cover such public officials/officers (as defined in Article 240 of the Penal Code) in respect of offences committed in their voter or citizenship registration functions activities such as corruption (Articles 245 and 246); Disclosure of official secrets (Article 253); Omission or refusal to perform official acts (Article 255) and offences of falsification of public documents (see below).

¹²³ Note also that any falsification of a public document by a public officer in the performance of his duties as a Registration Officer could come under Article 366 of the Penal Code, and would be punishable by imprisonment of 1 to 8 years. Overall, it is questionable whether this general clause addressing all ‘contraventions’ of this Law, which are of varying gravity, is likely to displace totally, under Article 14 of the Penal Code, the relevant more specific Article 366 Penal Code offences and the Prosecution needs to look carefully into the applicability of the Penal Code provisions in relevant cases.

¹²⁴ Falsification of a Citizenship Identity Card, which is not covered by this Clause, would come under the Penal Code Article 366 to 382 (Falsification of public documents).

¹²⁵ Falsification of public documents by a private person is dealt with in the Penal Code by Article 372 which attracts a third of the punishment for public officers.

¹²⁶ This Article 44 does not cover multiple offences which are likely to arise in the case of people who may be determined to abuse the voter registration (or citizenship registration). Prosecutors and the Police would no doubt note that as set out Article 14 of the Penal Code, in the absence of any specified provisions dealing with multiple cases in this special Registration Law, the relevant provisions of the Penal Code shall apply. For example, Article 44 of the Penal Code states as follows:

‘Article 44 More than One Breach of One or Various Provisions of Law by One or More Acts

Whoever, by a single act or omission, violates various provisions of law, or commits more than one breach of the same provision of law, shall be punished, for the various offences provided for by law. In such a case, the punishments imposed in the same judgment shall be added together, subject to the maximum limits fixed by law’.

This means that each charge of registering or attempting to register more than once against one offender shall, if proven, attract the punishment set for that offence in each case.

¹²⁷ Note also that other than general power in Article 45, there are other provisions in this Law which also give the National Electoral Commission power to issue Regulations, decisions etc. such as Articles 27(3) - a general power; 29(1) - another wide power on the period, conduct and procedures of the registration; 34(1) - another wide power on procedures; 34(2) - a specific power on choice of polling station during registration; 35(4) - a specific power on parties’ representatives; and 40(2) - a specific power on the technical committee.

These Additions and Amendments to Law No. 37/2007, Voters' Registration Law, shall come into force on their approval by the Republic of Somaliland Parliament, signature by the President and publication in the Official Gazette.¹²⁸

(Note: The previous 'standard' repeal article in the bill, then numbered 45 has been unusually deleted in the final version of the Law, but the principle of new legislative provisions amending older identical ones would still apply. It goes without saying again that the sooner amendments, whether partial or total of previous identical provisions are added to every law, even if that is listed in a schedule, the better - editor)

¹²⁸ This Law was passed by the House of Representatives (for the second time) on 6 December 2014, after it was returned by the House of Elders, who approved it on 2 December 2014, and was signed by the President on 23 December 2014 (Presidential Decree No. 0413/12214). This Law was then published in the Somaliland Official Gazette 2014, Issue 12, dated 3 January 2015, p308, and hence came into force on that date. As there were some errors in the version published in the Gazette in January, a Corrigendum (correction) was published in the Somaliland Official Gazette 2015, Issue 4, dated 2 May 2015, p201.

REPUBLIC OF SOMALILAND

NATIONAL ELECTORAL COMMISSION

VOTERS' REGISTRATION IMPLEMENTATION REGULATIONS - NO. 01/2015

This an unofficial English Language Translation of the final text of the Regulations which is partly based on an incomplete English version of an earlier draft of the Regulations before its final amendments. My translation of the Voters' Registration (Amendments and Additions) Law - Law No. 37/2007 (as amended in 2014) - is also available and should be considered in conjunction with these more extensive Regulations. The Regulations were issued by the NEC (on 2 January 2016) in the exercise of the powers accorded to it under various provisions of the Voters' Registration Law. The 46 page Schedule of the Regulations listing the voters' registration stations (and the polling stations) by district and region is available separately.

(The Official Somali versions of both the Regulations and the 2014 Law are also available electronically at this Somaliland Voter Registration webpage.)

I am grateful to the Somaliland National Electoral Commission for providing me with a copy of the Regulations.

CHAPTER ONE: IMPLEMENTATION OF REGISTRATION OF VOTERS

PART ONE: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 Title of the Regulations

These Regulations shall be titled the “Voters’ Registration Implementation Regulations” (Regulations No. 01/2015).

Article 2 Definitions

Unless these Regulations or the Law (Law No. 37/2007) otherwise indicate, the following terms shall mean as set out below:

Registrar: means the Commission staff conducting the registration of voters.

Registration: means the registration of voters which is the responsibility of the the Commission.

National Councils: means the national councils of the Republic of Somaliland, such as the Parliament, the executive, and the judiciary.

Commission: means the National Electoral Commission.

Law: means the Voters’ Registration Law (Law No. 37/2007) which had amendments and additions made to it in 2014

Ministry: means the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Somaliland.

Article 3 General principles

These Regulations shall govern and be used for the implementation of the registration of voters

Article 4 The implementation of the registration of voters

1. The Commission shall implement the registration of voters in a manner consistent with the Law¹²⁹ and these Regulations.

¹²⁹ That is the Voter Registration (Amendments and Additions) Law (Law No. 37 /2007 as amended in 2014). This last extensive amendments of the originally 2007 Law were signed into law by the President on 23 December 2014 and came into force on their publication in the Somaliland Official Gazette on 3 January 2015.

2. The Commission shall set out, in accordance with the provisions of the Law and these Regulations, all the plans necessary for an accurate registration.
3. The Commission shall undertake all the requisite timely preparations for the conduct of the voter registration activities.
4. The Commission shall announce the period specified for the registration in each region and all the information the citizens need to know.

PART TWO

Article 5 Awareness raising about the voters' registration activities

1. The Commission shall implement in all regions of country a wide awareness raising exercise for informing the public about the importance of registration of voters and the ways in which one can register.
2. In implementing this Article, the Commission shall utilise the available media outlets of the country by making awareness raising programmes that can enhance the public understanding of the registration of voters.
3. This stage shall be a period of no less than 15 days in which the citizens of each region shall be urged to get ready for the voters' registration.
4. The Commission shall also undertake nationwide awareness raising for the wider Somaliland public by utilising the media outlets that exist in the country.
5. In implementing the above articles, the Commission shall produce messages, writings, literary works and any other communication tools that it considers can deliver the awareness raising message to the public.

PART THREE: PROGRESS OF THE VOTERS' REGISTRATION ACTIVITIES

Article 6 Persons ineligible to register

The following persons are ineligible to be registered:

- a) Citizens with mental incapacity¹³⁰;
- b) convicted or remand prisoners;
- c) foreigners staying in Somaliland;
- d) person who has not reached the age of majority¹³¹.

¹³⁰ My footnote comments on the identical first two corresponding Clauses 6(2)(a) and (b) of the 2014 (Amendments and Additions) Law and relating to mental incapacity and to prisoners might provide more explanations on the issues this Clause 6(a) of the Regulations.

¹³¹ The first three ineligibility criteria for voter registration follow the wording of Article 10 of the 2007 Voters' Registration Law and the almost identical Article 6(2) of the 2014 (Amendments and Additions) Law, but the fourth criteria (in Regulation 6(d) above) diverts drastically from both the corresponding fourth criteria of the corresponding provisions of the 2007 law and the 2014 law. It introduces only one criterion of reaching age of maturity (qaangaadh) which is a rubbery concept in Somaliland law as it has different meanings in the civil law (which is 18 years old for the age of 'majority'), in sharia law (which is generally linked to age of puberty) and in electoral laws (which it has no relevance as voting is based on an age set by law). Article 10(4) of the 2007 Law did not mention age of maturity and simply set the criterion as being 'any

Article 7 The start and end of registration of voters

1. The Commission shall publicise the period when registration shall take place in each region before the start of the registration.
2. The registration shall take place in every region for 28 days¹³² which are -
 - a) in the rural areas¹³³, 7 days¹³⁴;
 - b) in the regional capitals, 14 days with a residual¹³⁵ period of 14 days where person who has not reached the qualifying age for voting' (at the time of voting), which is, in turn, defined by similarly numbered articles 5 of the 2001 and the 2005 Election Laws as reaching '16 years during the year the elections are being held'. This was then further clarified in Article 21 of the 2007 Law to the effect that 'if the citizen is aged less than the qualifying age of voting at the date of the election, but will reach the qualifying age at the date of election, s/he shall be registered and issued with a Voter Card'.

Unfortunately, rather than following completely the previous correct provisions of the 2007 Law, Article 6(2)(d) of the 2014 Law states simply that the age ineligibility criterion is 'any person who has not reached the registration qualifying age' which is correct but does not explain what that age is, and then muddies the whole issue by continuing to add, in parenthesis, 'who is below the age of majority' – a concept that has no meaning in electoral laws. These Regulations then follow only this latter additional part of the 2014 Clause. In the circumstances, in my view, this 2014 sub Clause 6(2) has not affected or repealed the clearer and separate Article 21 of the 2007 Law which identified correctly the statutory voter registration criterion of being anyone who, at the time of registration is clearly adjudged as reaching the qualifying age of voting at the forthcoming election(s) on 27 March 2017. This means that the current voters' registration from 16 January 2015, someone who is 15 (or just under 15 before March 27 this year) is eligible for voter registration, so long as s/he will be 16 by 26 March 2017. Clearly there will continue to be considerable problems for a long time with lack of age/birthday records and judgment has to be made in many cases along the lines set out Article 44 of these Regulations, but introducing a 'maturity' test is unlikely to be of much help and not, in any case, in line with the current law. I have made similar comments in connection with Article 6 of the 2014 Law.

¹³² This is an overall maximum actual registration period of 28 days for each region (which contrasts favourably with the 2008/9 actual registration period of 20 days) and is divided into an initial core period of 7 (in non-regional capital districts) or 14 days (in regional capital districts). People residing in the rural and district capitals who have not registered in the allotted 7 days 'core period' (see Article 57(1)) can register in the NEC specified special stations during the additional 'residual period' (see Article 57(3)) of 21 days in their district capital - hence a total of 28 days. In the regional capitals, the initial core period is 14 and the additional residual period is also 14 days, again a total of 28 days running concurrently with the 28 period for rural/district areas in the same region. Note also as regional capitals are also designated district capitals under the Regions and Districts (Self-Management) Law – Law No 23/2003 & 2007 (Articles 5(1) and 6), they invariably include some surrounding rural areas that will have the same registration period regime as their own district capital.

¹³³ The Regulations do not define the term 'rural areas', but the import of the following two sub Clauses (b) and (c), is that they are, 'in any region, all the rural areas of the districts other than the Regional Capital district' and which will then have their residual registration period of 21 days in their district capital town. .

¹³⁴ People residing in the rural areas and their district capitals, with the exception of the (regional capital district) who have not registered in the allotted 7 days 'core period' (see Article 57(1)) can register in the NEC specified special stations during the additional 'residual period' (see Article 57(3)) of 21 days in their district capital - hence a total of 28 days (see sub Clause 7(2)(c) below).

¹³⁵ This second 'period (referred to as 'kabis' (additional), in Somali, is referred to as 'hadhaa' (residual) in Article 57(3) of these Regulations). Those persons who have not registered themselves in the core period can register during this residual period of 14 days in the regional capital town or 21 days (see sub Clause (c) below) in the other district capitals, also choose which polling station within the district they shall cast their vote in the election. The rationale for the 14 days core period for the regional capital cities/towns is the density/size of their population.

Although it is not specified in this Article, the rural areas within the regional capital district will still only have a 7 day core period, as in all other rural areas in other district in the same region, but will join the 14 residual period of their district (and regional) capital, which means that in effect their total registration period could be less than the standard 28 days. I understand, however, that the NEC has arranged for some extra mobile registration units for some of these rural areas.

registration teams shall be left in special stations specified by the Commission;

c) in district capitals, 7 days with a residual¹³⁶ period of 21 days where registration teams shall be left in special stations specified by the Commission.

d) If the Commission deems it necessary, the period of registration in the districts of some of the regions may be aligned with the period of registration in a different region¹³⁷.

3. The Commission shall issue a timetable scheduled setting out clearly the plan of their activities.

4. After the publication of the schedule, the Commission may, if it deems it necessary, amend the plan of their activities.

Article 8 The process of the registration of voters

1. The process of the registration of voters shall consist of five (5) successive stages which shall be undertaken, at every region of the country during its specified period, sequentially one region at a time.

2. The five(5) stages are as follows:

A. Stage one: preparation

- i. This stage shall be a period of not less than 15 days when the citizens of each region shall be urged to get ready for the registration of voters.
- ii. During this stage, all the voter registration staff shall be recruited and all the training of the voters' registration staff shall also be conducted.

B. Stage two: The official registration of voters

- i. On the conclusion of the preparation stage, the next period (*Core period*¹³⁸) of not less than seven (7) days, each region shall be visited by groups of voters' registration staff, the number of which shall be determined by the Commission, who shall undertake the official Registration of voters.
- ii. When the period of seven (7) days ends, additional groups will remain in each region to register any person who has not yet registered during the previous seven (7) days. (Residual period)¹³⁹

C. Stage three: On conclusion of the registration activities in the regions and the districts, the information in the main server at the Commission Headquarters shall screen all the registered citizens and shall pick out any person who registered more than once.

- i. When the screening process is completed, the Commission shall produce the preliminary lists of the registration of voters which will be displayed at places specified by the ¹³⁶ See the preceding footnote for the voter registration during the residual period in district capital towns serving their rural areas.

¹³⁸ This 7 day period is also referred to, in English, as the 'core' period in Article 57(1) of these Regulations and so I have this term in brackets in this sub Clause. See also Article 7(2) of the Regulations about the core period.

¹³⁹ This second registration period in each region is termed, under Article 57(3), the residual period. See also Article 7(2) of the Regulations about the duration of the residual period.

Commission in each region and/or district.

D. Stage Four: Any person complaining about the preliminary lists must submit his/her complaint within the period specified in these Regulations¹⁴⁰ and a decision about it shall be made.

E. Stage Five: after a decision is made about all erroneous information and appropriate corrective measures are taken, the Commission shall produce the official Register of Voters, and shall issue a Voting Card to the citizens in the Register who have the certificate¹⁴¹ of registration.

CHAPTER TWO: MANAGEMENT OF THE VOTERS' REGISTRATION

PART TWO

Article 9 Establishment of the Voters' Registration Activities Technical Committee

1. The Voters' Registration Activities Technical Committee is hereby established.
2. The members of the Committee shall consist of the following:
 - a) Two members from the Electoral Commission at national level;
 - b) two from the Ministry of Internal Affairs; and
 - c) three members from each of the three political parties.
3. The Technical Committee shall commence its functions when these Regulations are approved and end them on conclusion of the registration activities and the production of the final (Voters') List¹⁴². However, the Committee shall be established again whenever a (voters') registration is to be undertaken.
4. The two members of the Electoral Commission shall serve as the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Committee¹⁴³.
5. The Technical Committee members shall sign the Code of Conduct of the Technical Committee.
6. The following are ineligible for membership of the Technical Committee:

¹⁴⁰ The limitation period for making such complaints about the preliminary lists is, as set out in Article 64 of these Regulations, seven (7) days beginning from the date when the preliminary lists are published. Note that, in Somaliland law (unlike in some other jurisdictions), unless otherwise specified, the first day of the publication of the preliminary lists is not included when counting the seven (7) day limitation period – see for example Article 110 of the Civil Procedure Code which states that any periods calculated on the basis of days (or hours) shall not include the day (or the hour) the period begins from, and that if the final day (in this case the 7th day) is a public holiday, the following working day shall be considered as the final day.

¹⁴¹ See Article 39(2) of the Regulations for the issue of a 'Certificate of Registration' by the Registration Station Operator of every person who has registered at that station, and Article 68(2) for the replacement of any lost or damaged certificates prior to the issue of the actual Voting Card.

¹⁴² See Article 67(1) for the production of the final lists.

¹⁴³ In view of the fact that the Electoral Commission has to decide which two of its eight members shall serve on this Committee, it might be expedient to include in their decision the designation of the two chosen as chairman and deputy chairman respectively.

- a) Members of the national councils¹⁴⁴.
- b) Persons who are not citizens.
- c) Persons with mental incapacity.
- d) Persons aged less than 30 years.
- e) Persons who appear to be incapable of shouldering responsibility.

Article 10 Objects of the Voters' Registration Activities Technical Committee

1. The objects purpose of the Technical Committee is to -
 - a) assist the Commission in the proper conduct of voters' registration activities; (and)
 - b) provide advice on the implementation of the registration of voters.

The functions and duties of the Committee are to:

1. provide technical advice to the Commission on the ways of implementing the registration of voters;
2. contribute to and support any activities that the Commission requires their contribution or support;
3. advice on any technical problems which might be arise in the voters' registration process;
4. act as a liaison between the the offices they represent and the Commission;

1. The Committee shall meet once a week, the date of which will be determined by the Chairman of the Committee who shall inform the other members.
2. If, due to urgent circumstances, an emergency meeting is needed, the Committee Chairman shall call a meeting of the members of the Committee.

¹⁴⁴ The 'national councils' (Golayaasha Qaranka) are defined in Article 2 of the Regulations as 'the Parliament, the executive, and the judiciary'. This means usually the two Houses of Parliament and the Council of Government (i.e the Cabinet), and the judiciary are not usually included. Local Councils (mainly the district and regional councils) are technically not 'national' bodies although collectively they are nation-wide and perhaps should have been included in this ineligibility criteria, in which case a more comprehensive wording would have been 'national and local councils'. The Judiciary (which, under the Somaliland Constitution, still unfortunately includes the prosecution – a legacy of the Italian drafted 1960 Somalia constitution which became the constitution of the 'Somali Republic' after the union of Somalia and Somaliland) has already special laws which do not allow its involvement in other public offices or posts.

3. The quorum for convening a meeting is the attendance of half plus one of the Committee members¹⁴⁵.

4. The members of the Technical Committee may lose their membership if-

- a) s/he resigns his/her own membership;
- b) s/he dies;
- c) one of the requisite conditions for his/her selection is no longer valid;

5. Any member who vacates his membership prior to the conclusion of the registration shall be replaced by the body that s/he represented¹⁴⁶.

1. The Monitoring Board for the Proper Conduct of the Voters' Registration is hereby established.

2. The purpose of the establishment of the Board is to advance the realisation of the holding of a proper registration in the country and for such registration to be undertaken and concluded without disputes and in accordance with the (Registration) Law and the (other) laws of the country.

3. (S/he must) be known for political impartiality.
4. S/he must possess report writing skills.

Article 19 Term of Office of the Board

1. The term of office of the Board, at national level, is six months beginning from the date of their signature of the (*appointment*¹⁴⁹) agreement.

¹⁴⁹ This is likely to be their appointment agreement.

- a) The conditions and skills required of the person to be recruited to a post;
- b) the employee selection procedures to be followed; and
- c) the work duties of every person (every post) in the conduct of the Voters' Registration functions.'

¹⁵¹ This power is given under Article 33(1) of the Law which does not set any fixed numbers for the registration staff (see the preceding footnote).

- iv. Members of the national councils¹⁵².
- v. Employees of the state¹⁵³.
- vi. The national Forces¹⁵⁴.

5. The other criteria shall be the same as those applicable to the chairmen of the regional and district electoral offices¹⁵⁵.

9. S/he shall prepare a periodic report about the regional registration office.
10. S/he shall have a close working relationship with the regional representatives of the national (political) parties and with the heads of the regional authorities.

¹⁵² See the definition of 'National Councils' in Article 2 of these Regulations, and the footnote relating to the similar requirement under Article 6(9)(a). Note, however, that the following Clause 5 of this Article links the criteria for selection of the regional and district registration staff to those applicable to the Chairmen of regional and district electoral office, which include exclusion of the chairmen of local authorities from acting as electoral staff (see Article 19(5) of the 2001 Election Law - Law No. 20/2001 as amended – and states that 'the chairmen of the districts, regions and local councils, and candidates standing for elections cannot be appointed to electoral offices').

¹⁵³ I have translated 'dawladda' as the 'state' rather than the 'government', which means that the exclusion covers not just central government employees but also, unless otherwise specified, all public employees, including those of the local councils. This Clause incidentally applies only to registration staff at the regional and district level, but note that there is a similar Clause 37(1)(f) of these Regulations that applies to the more numerous staff at the registration stations, and which, significantly, exempts teachers employed by the state from the exclusion.

¹⁵⁴ This includes the Police Force and the Corrections Corps.

¹⁵⁵ These additional criteria for the chairmen of the regional or district electoral offices are set out in Article 19(7) of the 2001 Election Law \(Law No. 20/2001 as amended\) which states that '[t]he eligibility criteria for the appointment of the chairmen of the district and regional electoral offices shall be the same as those for the appointment of the members of the Commission'. The relevant criteria for the Commission members are set out in more detail in Article 12 of the 2001 Election Law.

11. S/he shall perform the other functions and duties set out in the *Presidential and Local Council Elections Law (Law No 20/2001)*¹⁵⁶, these Regulations and the agreements s/he entered into with the Commission.

3. S/he shall particularly work with the financial manager of the Commission headquarters so as to ensure the timely disbursement of the regional funds for the registration work.
3. S/he shall ensure that the financial procedures are strictly followed.
4. S/he shall prepare each month a comprehensive financial statement which s/he must submit to the Commission headquarters at the end of every month.
5. S/he shall maintain the petty cash for the office.
6. S/he shall deal with inventory orders and at the same time be responsible for the required registration equipment (and materials), those that are being used and those that are ordered.

3. S/he shall perform any other task delegated to him/her by the Commission or the regional chairman.
4. S/he shall fill the position of the chairman in the circumstances where the chairman leaves the position, is ill, resigns, is absent or dies.
5. S/he shall perform the other functions and duties set out in the Presidential and Local ¹⁵⁶ Other than the criteria for employment of the Regional Registration Chairman which are similar to those relating to the regional electoral officers set out in the 2001 Law, which are not duties, the purpose of the referral to this Law in this Clause is not clear. It is perhaps more likely that this reference was to the more relevant Voter Registration (Amendments and Additions) Law which is mentioned in both the preamble and Article 2 of this Law. The same references to the duties in the 2001 Elections Law are repeated in Articles 28(7), 29(5), 30(5), 31(9), 32(8), 33(6) and 34(5) to which similar comments apply.

*Council Elections Law (Law No 20/2001)*¹⁵⁸, these Regulations and the agreements s/he entered into with the Commission.

¹⁶⁰ In the light of the corresponding provision (Article 27(2)) relating to the role of the regional chairman recruitment of registration staff, which is limited to assisting the Commission, and the express provision in Article 36(4) stating that the Commission is responsible for the appointment of registration station staff members including the interviewer, it is not clear whether the district chairman shall be 'responsible for the recruitment' of interviewers, but it might well be the case is this is an exception to the other provisions. It is perhaps possible that task is 'assignment' rather than 'recruitment'.

This Clause 31(2) also referred incorrectly to 'polling' rather than 'registration' stations.

(political) parties in the district and with the district authorities.

9. S/he shall perform the other functions and duties set out in the *Presidential and Local Council Elections Law (Law No 20/2001)*¹⁶¹, these Regulations and the agreements s/he entered into with the Commission.

6. S/he shall be particularly responsible for maintaining the petty cash for the office.
7. S/he shall deal with inventory orders and at the same time be responsible for the required registration equipment (and materials), those that are being used and those that are ordered.
8. S/he shall perform the other functions and duties set out in the *Presidential and Local Council Elections Law (Law No 20/2001)*¹⁶³, these Regulations and the agreements s/he entered into with the Commission.

Article 33 Functions and duties of the District Office Tallier

6. S/he shall perform the other functions and duties set out in the *Presidential and Local Council Elections Law (Law No 20/2001)*¹⁶⁴, these Regulations and the agreements s/he entered into with the Commission.

¹⁶¹ See the above footnote comment relating to the identical Article 27(11) of these Regulations.

¹⁶² This is linked to district chairman' role set out in Article 31(2) of these Regulations and the footnote comments there apply equally to this Clause.

¹⁶³ See the above footnote comments relating to the identical Article 27(11) of these Regulations.

¹⁶⁴ ibid.

Article 36 Staff working at the voters' registration stations

- c) S/he must not be a member of the national councils (*golayaasha*¹⁷¹) of the Republic of Somaliland.

- f) S/he must be a responsible person who is capable of undertaking the registration functions.
- g) S/he must show capability, honesty, and trustworthiness, and have a good reputation within the community.

- j) S/he must not have been subject of a final conviction for a criminal offence within the last three years
- k) S/he must comply with the laws and with the Voters' Registration Law.

Article 38 Functions and duties of the station chairman

1. The registration station chairman shall be responsible for the day to day activities of the registration station.
2. S/he shall open and also close the registration station every working day in accordance with the (Voter Registration) Law and these Regulations.
3. S/he shall be particularly responsible for the materials and equipment used for the voters' registration.
4. Whilst utilising the services of the security forces, the chairman shall keep the order at the registration station and determine the number of registrants who can be admitted into the registration station once, without including (the number of) the registration staff, parties' representatives, observers and any other persons approved by the Commission.
5. The station chairman may order the security forces to arrest any person who is shown to be attempting to register more than once, and the security forces must then transfer such persons as soon as possible to the closest (police) station so that they can be prosecuted for the offences attracting the punishment set out in Article 44 of the (Voters' Registration) Law¹⁷³.

¹⁶⁹ This list is therefore not exhaustive.

¹⁷⁰ As I have often raised, this wording has to be read as simply being a partial of Somaliland in accordance with Article 4(1) of the Constitution, but, as the Somaliland Citizenship Law indicates, citizenship can be acquired in other ways, as well, and therefore in view of the constitutional guarantee of equal treatment of citizens (Article 8), unless there is a lawful reason to do otherwise, criterion like this should simply state (or be read as stating) that person must be 'a Somaliland Citizen' with no other additional qualifying terms.

¹⁷¹ See above footnotes to Article 9(6)(a) and to Article 26(4)(iv) of these Regulations relating to this condition about 'national councils'. Article 2 of the Law also provides a brief definition of the term.

¹⁷² See footnote relating to the similar wording in Article 26(4)(v) of these Regulations.

¹⁷³ For more details about the relevant offences and their punishment, see Article 44 of the Law (and its related extensive footnotes).

6. The registration station chairman shall order anyone, including (political) parties' representatives, observers, and the media, who contravenes the provisions of these Regulations or disrupts the proper conduct of the registration to be expelled from the registration station or from the queue.

7. Any person who fails to comply with the orders of security forces (at the registration station) commits an offence and the security forces shall take the (appropriate) steps against the person in accordance with the law¹⁷⁴.

8. The registration station chairman shall take all steps s/he deems necessary for the protection of every person at the registration station, so as to prevent the occurrence of any disturbance or trouble at the registration station.

9. The powers set out above in this Article shall, in no way, be exercised so as to refuse the registration of a citizen who fulfils the eligibility registration criteria¹⁷⁵.

Article 39 Functions of the operator

1. The operator shall be responsible for entering the information on the voters' registration form into a computer, performing the screening of the particulars of the eye (iris) and taking the photograph of the person.

2. After registering a person, s/he shall issue a Certificate of Registration to him/her.

Article 40 Functions of the interviewer

1. The interviewer shall interview the person and enter the particulars of the person in the voter's registration form.

2. S/he shall complete the voter's registration form.

3. After completing the voter's registration form, he shall ensure that the name and the other particulars are accurate and read it back to the registrant for confirmation.

Article 41 Security personnel¹⁷⁶

¹⁷⁴ For example, under Article 505 (Non-observance of Orders of the Authorities) of the Penal Code - 'Whoever fails to observe an order lawfully given by any public Authority, in the interests of justice, public security, public order or hygiene, shall be punished, where the act does not constitute a more serious offence, with imprisonment of up to three months or with fine of up to SL Shs. 3,000,000.'

In particular, if the security forces were fulfilling the lawful order of the registration station chairman, then the failure to observe such an order would amount to an offence (albeit a contravention rather than a crime) under this article of the Penal Code.

¹⁷⁵ If that is done by any of the registration staff, then this will amount to a criminal offence under Article 44(4) of the Voter Registration (Amendments & Additions) Law, punishable by imprisonment of 3 to 5 years. This would also amount to an unlawful denial of the citizen's fundamental right to vote enshrined in Article 22(2) of the Constitution.

¹⁷⁶ It is only in this Article heading and in Clause 4 of this Article that the term 'security personnel' (shaqaalaha amniga) is used for the 'security forces' (ciidamada amaanka). The latter term is used throughout the rest of these Regulations, such as in Articles 36, 38, 41, 54, 55 and 58.

1. The police officers¹⁷⁷ guarding the registration station are responsible for safeguarding the security of the station, organising the queues, and arresting any person who attempts to register twice.
2. They shall undertake the protection and safeguarding of the security of the registration equipment and staff.
3. The security forces working at the (voters' registration) station may enter inside the station if the station chairman asks them to do so, and, (if so,) shall take their orders from the station chairman.
4. If it appears that there is a real danger facing the registration staff or the persons registering, the security personnel shall, whilst consulting the station chairman, instruct that the persons in the queues should disburse and that the station be closed until the danger is dealt with/removed.
5. The station chairman must report (the incident) as soon possible to the Commission and to its district/regional offices.

Article 42 Functional role of the of the Ministry of Internal Affairs

1. The functional role of the Ministry of Internal Affairs in the conduct of the voters' registration process shall be the verification of the citizenship of the registrants who do not possess an Identity Card¹⁷⁸.
2. The Ministry shall send a representative to every voters' registration station who shall verify the citizenship of citizens who possess a citizenship Identity Card.

Article 43 Verification of the citizen

1. The person who does not possess a citizenship Identity Card shall have his identity verified by a representative from the Ministry of Internal Affairs.
2. The representative of the Ministry must be satisfied that the registrant is, in accordance with the law¹⁷⁹, a citizen of the Republic of Somaliland.
3. If s/he (the representative of the Ministry) is not satisfied that the person is citizen, s/he shall ask the person to bring someone well known in the locality, such as a Sultan, an Akil; a member (of one) of the two Houses of Parliament (or of) the local councils; a village Imam; a local business person¹⁸⁰.
4. The citizenship of the person can also be verified by (the production of) a Somaliland

¹⁷⁷ In the rest of these Regulations, the police force is referred to as the security forces.

¹⁷⁸ This role of the Ministry is set out in Article 25(2) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law (and previously in Article 15 of the 2007 Law).

¹⁷⁹ The relevant law is the Somaliland Citizenship Law (Law No. 22/2002).

passport, an identity card issued by a local government, (or) a birth certificate issued by Somaliland.

Article 44 Confirmation of the voter's age

1. The age of the citizen shall be the age recorded in the citizen's Identity Card.
2. The citizen who does not possess an Identity Card may have his/her age verified by (the production of) of other identification documents such as an identity document (or) passport indicating the age (birth) of the person.
3. If the registrar¹⁸¹ is unsure or has is unclear about whether the age of the citizen has reached the qualifying age for registration for the (forthcoming) election, the citizen's parent shall be accepted asked and the age so confirmed shall accepted. If no parent is available, the station chairman shall make a determination about the citizen's age.
4. If the citizen is a person who does not reach the qualifying age for voting at the time of the registration, but will reach that age at the polling date, that person shall be registered.

PART FIVE

Article 45 Parties' representatives

1. The three national parties shall each send one representative to each (registration) station. They may also send substitutes¹⁸² if any of them are absent.
2. The representatives sent by the parties must be present at their stations at the times when the registration activities are being conducted, and shall submit, if any, their concerns or complaints.
3. The names of parties' representatives must be submitted to the Commission offices 10 days before the (start) date of the registration in the region.
4. The Commission shall issue each representative an accreditation (card) or a written approval allowing him/her to work at the assigned registration station.
5. Every party representative must, at all times, carry with his/her accreditation card¹⁸³ issued by the Commission, and any representative who not carry the accreditation card, shall lose the right to enter the voters' registration station.
6. Every party representative must comply with the Code of Conduct for the Political Parties¹⁸⁴ and with the registration laws in force.

¹⁸¹ Note that under Article 2 of these Regulations, 'registrar' means any of 'the Commission staff conducting the registration of voters'.

¹⁸² See, however, the procedures for substitution set out in Clauses 7 to 9 of this Article.

¹⁸³ Or, presumably, the Commission written approval mentioned as an alternative in the preceding Clause 4 of this Article.

¹⁸⁴ The Voters' Registration Code of Conduct for the Political Parties consisting of 22 articles was signed by the three political parties and the National Electoral Commission on 7 January 2016. The Code is much more detailed than the 2009 Code relating to then voters' registration.

7. The parties may substitute their representatives only when they have submitted a written request to the Commission and the request has been approved.
8. The party must include in its written request the reasons for substituting its representative and the details of the substitute.
9. In places where it is not possible to receive the written request for substitution, the Commission at that place (station) shall reach a decision about the request.

Article 46 Functions and duties of political parties' representatives

1. The parties' representatives shall check that the registration process is being conducted in accordance with the law, and shall observe, in their assigned stations, the registration activities carried out by the station registration staff.
2. The parties' representatives shall not interfere with or obstruct the ongoing registration process.
3. If the parties' representatives contravene the Code of Conduct, the (registration) station chairman has the power to expel him/her from the station, and shall so inform the Commission as soon as possible.
4. The parties' representatives may complete the complaint forms if they notice one or all of the following situations:
 - a) If persons who have not reached the (qualifying) registration age, as set out in the Voters' Registration Law, are registered.
 - b) If persons who are not born to (citizens) of the Republic of Somaliland are registered.
 - c) If persons who have met the requisite conditions for registration are refused registration.
 - d) If registrants are treated in a discriminatory¹⁸⁵ manner.
 - e) If registrants are put in a state of fear.
 - f) If the (registration) law and/or the Voters' Registration Regulations are not applied.
 - g) If, during the normal working hours, the registration station is not opened or no activity is carried out, without any reason.
5. The complaints made by the parties' representatives must be submitted to the Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Complaints¹⁸⁶ as soon as possible but no later than two days¹⁸⁷.

¹⁸⁵ As the prohibited grounds of discrimination are not specified in the Law or in these Regulations, it is the constitutional non-discrimination grounds set out in Article 8 (Equality of citizens) of the Constitution that could be applicable in these circumstances. The equality/discriminatory grounds listed in Article 8 are colour, clan (and clan affiliation), birth, language, gender, property, status, opinion, ethnicity, clan affiliation and residence. The underlying principle of Article 8 is that '[a]ll citizens of Somaliland shall enjoy equal rights and obligation before the law' and so, in general, unjustified less favourable treatment of a citizen in comparison to others in the same circumstances may be discriminatory.

¹⁸⁶ This is the Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints – see Article 66 of these Regulations.

¹⁸⁷ Presumably the two days' time limit starts from the date the complaint is made by the parties' representatives at the station. See more about the Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints in Article 66 of these Regulations.

6. The parties' representatives shall not exhibit a writing, a sign, a card or any other matter indicating that they are representatives of a specific party, and shall not campaign at the registration station or its surroundings.

7. The parties' representatives shall come to work when the station is opened and shall leave when the station is closed.

3. S/he shall be able to read and write.
4. S/he shall be a responsible person and of good conduct.

¹⁸⁸ See footnote to the similar sub Clause 37(1)(a) of these Regulations.

¹⁸⁹ See footnotes to Article 9(6)(a) and to Article 26(4)(iv) of these Regulations relating to this condition about 'national councils'. Article 2 of the Law also provides a brief definition of the term.

¹⁹⁰ The Code of Conduct for Voters' Registration Observers has been issued by the National Electoral Commission in the exercise of the general powers given to the Commission under Article 45 of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law.

¹⁹¹ It was reported that such a Code might have been signed by the Ministry of Information, Somaliland Journalist Association (SOLJA), Somaliland Women Journalist Association (WIJA) and NEC at a two day workshop held at the Academy for Peace & Development on 2-4 June 2015. No copy is available.

Article 50 Training of voters' registration staff

1. The Commission shall provide training to all the voters' registration staff so that they can perform their functions in an effective manner.
2. The voters' registration staff shall perform their functions in an honest, confident, fair, patriotic, thorough and proper manner.

1. It is the duty of all the voters' registration staff to protect the confidentiality of the office and of the registration information.
2. Any person who discloses or otherwise benefits¹⁹² from the registration information commits an offence punishable in accordance with the provisions of the Penal Code¹⁹³.
3. The duty to protect the confidentiality of the registration information shall continue to apply even after the completion of the registration activities or the expiry of the (employment) agreement with the person.

CHAPTER THREE: VOTERS' REGISTRATION MATERIALS

PART ONE

Article 52 Equipment/Materials for the voters' registration offices

1. The Commission shall prepare for the voters' registration stations the materials needed for undertaking the registration activities.
2. The Commission shall dispatch, at an appropriate time, the registration equipment including computer kit/s for the registration with their unique numbers for each station, for delivery at the voters' registration station.
3. All the various materials and equipment for use for the voters' registration must be strictly safeguarded and every station they are held should be recorded. They should then be returned to the places in the district/region specified by the Commission.
4. The Commission shall deliver, at the appropriate time, the necessary materials to the voters' registration stations.

Article 53 Getting the registration stations ready

¹⁹² There is a specific offence of using the particulars of citizens in the Register in any manner contrary to the law or using it for benefit - Article 14(1) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law.

¹⁹³ For example, Article 253 of the Penal Code - disclosure of official (or secret) information by a public officer or a person entrusted with a public service, which carries punishment from 6 months to 3 years, unless the disclosure was merely through culpa (negligence), in which case the punishment shall be imprisonment up to one year. This offence applies to both Commission staff/members as public officers and any other private persons the Commission entrusts him/her with working on the information or data and is not an employee may come under the rubric of a 'person entrusted with a public service'.

1. When the voters' registration is being conducted, the country shall be divided into different registration stations in line with the six regions into which the country is divided.
2. The Commission shall announce through the media the voters' registration stations assigned to each region/district.
3. The polling stations in the last election¹⁹⁴ shall serve as registration stations. However, the Commission shall have the power to set up new stations or to move the old stations to other locations in order to expedite the registration process.
5. The Commission may set up new registration stations in a region/district prior to the day¹⁹⁵ of registration of voters in such a region.
6. The registration stations of the country are set out in Schedule One¹⁹⁶ (of these Regulations).
7. The Commission shall lay down a system for identifying different registration stations by assigning each voters' registration station a unique code.

Article 54 Order at the voters' registration stations

1. Only the Commission staff, the registrants, the parties' representatives, the observers and the approved media may enter the registration station.
2. It is prohibited for anyone, other than the security forces working at the station, to bring weapons to the registration station
3. Registrants shall form queues and the number entering the station at any time shall be determined by the chairman of the station.
4. The registrants shall be processed in the order of their arrival, but consideration may be given to processing earlier in the event of special circumstances, such as (in the case of) a disabled person, the elderly, lactating or pregnant mother, a sick or feeble person, or a person working at the registration process who wants to register him/herself.

Article 55 Period of the registration of voters' process

1. The registration process shall start at 6:00 am in the morning and finish at 6:00 pm in the evening. However, the voters' registration staff and the parties' representatives must be present at their assigned work places at least half an hour (30 minutes) before the start of ¹⁹⁴ The 2012 nation-wide local elections.

¹⁹⁵ This appears to refer to 'the first' day (or the commencement date) of the registration in that region.

¹⁹⁶ The Schedule is titled 'Voters Registration Stations by District/Region' and lists 1146 stations in the six regions of the country by district, number and name of the station and the polling station it is based on and in the few cases where more than polling station is merged into one registration centre, the names of all such merged polling stations. The Schedule runs to 46 (A4) pages. Article 34(1) of the 2014 Law gives the Commission the statutory power to set out the details registration station in Regulations. The polling station used are those set up for the last (nation-wide local district councils) elections in 2012, but the Commission has, in any case, specific powers to set up polling stations for elections under Article 9(3) of the 2001 Election Law and Article 11(2) of the 2005 Election Law.

the registration.

2. The registration shall continue, if (at the closing time) there are registrants still in the queue who have not been registered yet, until the completion of the registration of all such registrants in the queue.

3. It the duty of the security forces to mark the last person in the queue at the closing time of the registration (at 6.00 pm) and, at the same time do not allow any new comers to join the queue.

PART TWO

Article 56 Voters' Registration Form

1. The Registration Form shall form the basis of the voters' registration, and only the particulars of the person in a fully completed Registration Form can be registered.

The following particulars of the voter shall be recorded in the Registration Form:

- i) The name of the voter, in four¹⁹⁷, and, if s/he carries an Identity Card, recorded as written in the Identity Card.
- j) The name of the mother, in three¹⁹⁸.
- k) The year¹⁹⁹ and place of birth.
- l) Male or female.
- m) Telephone number, if s/he has one.
- n) The number of the Identity Card, if s/he has one.
- o) The name and the specific number of the polling station that s/he will cast his/her vote.
- p) Signature of the voter or an indication that s/he is unable to sign.

2. The Electoral Commission has the power to add to the Registration Form any additional information it considers to be important for the registration.

PART THREE: VOTERS' REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

Article 57 Voters' registration procedure

1. During the initial core period²⁰⁰ of the registration, registrants must register themselves at the stations²⁰¹ where they will be casting their votes.

¹⁹⁷ This indicates, in Somaliland's patrilineal personal nomenclature, the first name of the person (male or female) followed by the (first) names of his/her father, grandfather and great grandfather. Normally the first three names are used, but for identity databases in a country where home addresses are not available, four names assist in the differentiation of persons who have similar popular sequence of names.

¹⁹⁸ See preceding footnote. In this sub clause relating to the registrant's mother, only 3 names are required – first name followed by the (first) names her father and grandfather.

¹⁹⁹ With no birth registration system, it is often the year that is known than the date. This has also implications for identifying the minimum qualifying age for voting and for registration which do differ – see the footnote relating to Article 6(1)(d) of these Regulations and that relating to the similar Article 6(2)(d) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law.

²⁰⁰ See Articles 7(2) of the Regulations for the core and residual stages of the actual registration period.

²⁰¹ The vast majority of the total planned 1146 Registration Stations will be the electoral polling stations of the last 2012 election, but some registration stations in the regional capital towns may be covering more than one to four adjacent polling stations (see the following Clause 2 of this Article).

2. Where, in towns, some (polling) stations are combined (into one registration station), the citizen may register at the registration station, but may choose one of the other combined polling stations²⁰² as the polling station where s/he can cast his vote.
3. During the residual period²⁰³ of the registration, registrants shall choose at the district (registration) stations left open for this period the specific polling station within the district that they shall cast their votes.
4. The Commission shall issue a comprehensive procedures manual setting out the procedures and proper conduct of the registration process from beginning to end.

CHAPTER FOUR: REFUSAL AND COMPLAINTS

PART ONE

Article 58 Refusal of registration request

1. If the registrar²⁰⁴ or representative of the Ministry is not satisfied that a person does not fulfil the registration criteria, s/he shall give that person seeking registration a refusal notice whilst stating the reasons for the refusal.
2. If the registrar notices that the person seeking registration has already registered him/herself at another station or the same station, s/he shall reconfirm the particulars of the person and print out the details showing that the person has attempted to register more than once. If it appears to the registrar that the person has intentionally committed the act deliberately did it, he shall inform the person that s/he committed an offence²⁰⁵ and shall order the security forces to arrest him/her.
3. The refusal notice form of the person seeking registration shall consist of three copies of different colours with the original copy being handed to the person refused registration, the second copy being forwarded to the district/regional office, and the last copy being retained in the (refusal) forms book which will be forwarded to the Commission headquarters.
4. At least one refusal of registration forms book shall be delivered to every registration station.

PART TWO

Article 59 Complaints against refusal of registration

²⁰² As an example, there are roughly 78 Registration stations (in the 6 capital towns), each of which includes two to four combined polling stations. More than half of these combined Registration Stations are in the capital, Hargeisa – (41 in Hargeisa; 7 in Borama, 3 in Berbera; 13 in Burao; 10 in Las Anod and 4 in Erigabo).

²⁰³ See Article 7(2) for the residual period (of 14 or 21 days) which follows the initial core period (of 7 or 14 days) when all the registration stations in a region are open.

²⁰⁴ As set out in Article 2 of these Regulations, 'registrar' means any of 'the Commission staff conducting the registration of voters'. In practice it is more than likely that the serious issues involved in refusal of registration may well involve the station chairman's attention.

²⁰⁵ Article 44 to 2014 Voters' Registration Law sets out the offences of registering (or attempting to register) more than once.

1. During the registration period, the Commission must publicise the procedure for and the period in which a complaint can be made against a (registration) refusal decision.
2. Whilst taking the refusal form given to him/her by the registration station staff, any person who is not satisfied with the (refusal) decision of the registrar may complain to the district registration office within a period not exceeding two days²⁰⁶.
3. The district office shall assess and reach decisions about the complaints relating to (registration) refusal within a period of two days of their receipt.
4. The decision of the district registration office must be communicated to the relevant station as soon as possible within a period not exceeding 2 days²⁰⁷.
5. Any person who is not satisfied with the decision of the district registration (office) can complain through the district office to The Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints²⁰⁸ of the Electoral Commission,
6. The district (registration) office must submit the complaints of the citizens to The Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints as quickly as possible.
7. Any decision issued²⁰⁹ by The Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints is administrative in nature and can be appealed against to the competent court²¹⁰.
8. The (Registration) station chairman shall address every complaint the registrants have about the conduct of the work of the registration station.

CHAPTER FIVE: CLOSURE OF THE REGISTRATION STATION

PART ONE

Article 60 Closing the voters' registration process and transferring the equipment/materials

²⁰⁶ The two day period starts from the date of refusal, but the Regulations do not state otherwise, the standard Somaliland practice of not counting the incident date means that the person has two clear days to submit his/her complaint (see footnote 12 above referring to Article 110 of the Civil Procedure Code).

²⁰⁷ It is not clear when this 2 day period starts, but to underline the need for expedition, the Commission may well prefer to read Clauses 3 and 4 together and oblige the district office to inform the station immediately when it reaches a decision within the Clause 3 two day time limit.

²⁰⁸ See Article 66 of these Regulations for the composition and powers of this Panel.

²⁰⁹ No time limit for reaching a decision appears to have been set for the Panel. As the Panel will be setting out their procedure for reviewing the complaints, perhaps it may see it essential to have target periods for making these final administrative decisions. Some thought needs to be given, as well, to the fact that some of these 'administrative' complaints may well involve criminal offences which are being dealt with by the prosecuting authorities and so care must be taken in not impeding, in any way, such prosecutions. Different standards of proof apply in administrative and criminal cases.

²¹⁰ As this is a final decision of an administrative body, the competent court that has jurisdiction to deal with such administrative cases is the Somaliland Supreme Court (see Article 10(3)(c) of the Organisation of the Judiciary Law – Law No. 24/2003 \(2008\)). The time limit is 30 days from the receipt of the final decision of the Panel (Article 18(1) of the OJ Law).

1. When the station chairman finalises the voters' registration process, s/he shall back up the electronic information, prepare (a record of) the total number of voters registered and place them in their relevant assigned boxes.
2. The station chairman shall also place in the assigned envelope²¹¹ the (records of the) number of spoilt (voters' registration) forms, the (registration) refusal notice forms issued, and the evidences of the person(s) who attempted to register more than once.
3. The boxes (*and envelopes*²¹²) shall be sealed, stamped at the top with the station stamp and signed at the top by both the chairman and the of the station.
4. The details of the contents of each box (and envelope) shall be noted on its top.
5. The voters' station chairman, accompanied by at least a member of the station staff and the police providing security shall convey and transfer the equipment, documentary records and the boxes (and envelopes) of the station to the regional registration office within a period not exceeding 12 hours after the end of the registration.
6. When the equipment and the boxes (and envelopes) are transferred to the regional registration office, confirmation of the receipt of the transfer shall be given by the regional chairman.
7. The registration equipment shall be used again and shall be prepared for use in the region next in line to the one where the registration has been concluded.

CHAPTER SIX: PRELIMINARY LISTS

PART ONE

Article 61 Production of preliminary voters' registration lists

1. When the Commission finalises the registration of voters and is satisfied that the registration has been conducted properly, it shall produce a preliminary voters' lists.
2. The preliminary voters' list for each polling station shall be prepared. The voters' list prepared for each polling station shall include the each voter's unique number, his/her name in four²¹³, age, gender, photograph and polling station.
3. The Commission shall produce²¹⁴ the preliminary voters' lists after the voters'

²¹¹ The term 'gal', in Somali, means 'envelope'.

²¹² Although this Clause 3 and its following Clause 4 mention boxes only, the preceding Clause 2 refers to envelopes, and it is highly likely that these further requirements on the seals and notice of contents also apply to envelopes.

²¹³ See the footnote relating to Article 56(1)(a) above.

²¹⁴ The Somali term used here - 'soo dhajin' - means literally 'affix', for example on a notice board, which is described further in Clause 5 of this Article. As there is no indication in this Clause 3 and the following Clause 4 where the lists shall be affixed, I have chosen the term 'produce' in these Clauses. The modes of publicising the lists through affixing them in public places and through other means are covered by the following Clauses 5 and 6 of this Article. It could also be that the term meant was 'so dajin' (without the h) which means literal 'unload', but in the digital world could also mean 'download' (and print) or produce the documents i.e the lists.

registration in all the regions is completed, screening is undertaken, anyone who registered more than once is removed, and the existing complaints are addressed.

4. The Commission shall also produce the list of any persons who have registered more than once.

5. The Commission shall, at the latest a week before the date of publication of the preliminary voters' list, issue a public notice relating to the time(s) and place(s) where the preliminary voters' lists shall be affixed.

6. The Commission shall utilise other possible methods of publicising the preliminary voters' lists.

PART TWO

Article 62 Complaints relating to the production of the preliminary voters' lists

1. When the preliminary voters' registration list is produced, only²¹⁵ a person who has the Certificate of Registration may make a complaint about it.

2. Complaints may be related to one or all of the following matters:

- a) A polling station other than the one the person has selected has been assigned to him/her.
- b) The person's name does not appear in the Register.

4. Any person who is complaining must fill the form designed for complaints, which shall be issued to him/her by the Electoral Commission at district level.

5. Any complaints the national parties may have about the provisional²¹⁶ register must be submitted²¹⁷ with 7 days beginning from the date that provisional register is published. The political parties may complain if they notice that in the published (preliminary voters') lists -

- 1) persons who are not citizens, but have been registered;
- 2) persons who have not reached the registration age in accordance with the Voters' Registration Law, but have been registered;
- 3) persons entitled to be registered but have been denied registration without the existence of any justifiable reason.

Article 63 Complaint Forms

1. The Commission shall produce and deliver to every place/*station*²¹⁸ complaint forms²¹⁹.

²¹⁵ Note this refers to individuals complaining about their own particulars in respect of the preliminary lists and confirms that only such persons have standing to complain about the matters that concern them as individuals who already possess a registration certificate. The legitimate complaints by the political parties which relate to the process are dealt with separately under Clause 5 of this Article.

²¹⁶ The voters' lists published initially are described as 'preliminary', but cumulative lists, which are given to the three political parties are referred to here as 'provisional' or interim Register.

²¹⁷ Presumably to the National Electoral Commission.

²¹⁸ It not clear whether the reference to this station/place is the registration station (which is invariably also the polling station, except in the relatively few places where these were combined as one registration station) or the places where the preliminary lists have being affixed, but the publicity notice from the Commission issued under Article 61(5) will probably cover this point.

2. The complaint forms shall consist of three copies of different colours and indicating the recipient of each copy.
3. The complaint forms must be delivered to the regional offices of the Electoral Commission so that they can reach decisions about them.
4. If the regional office considers unable to address the complaint, it shall forward it to the (*Administrative*²²⁰) Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints.
5. Any person who is not satisfied with the decision of regional office has the right to submit his/her complaint to the Commission's (Administrative) Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints.
6. The Electoral Commission shall establish a panel dealing specifically with the resolution of the administrative complaints relating to the registration of voters²²¹.
7. Any decision issued by (Administrative) Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints is an administrative decision and any person not satisfied with it may appeal to the Supreme Court of the Republic of Somaliland²²².

Article 64 The period complaints can be made and appeals

Any person complaining about the information in the preliminary voters' list must submit his complaint within seven days beginning from the date of the publication of the preliminary lists.

Article 65 Decision making on complaints relating to the preliminary voters' lists

1. The Commission regional office shall reach decisions about the complaints relating , to preliminary voters' lists after it has examined them and considered whether they are justifiable, and shall put a request to the central office of the Commission where a correction (of the lists) is required.
2. If the complaint relates to technical issues, the chairman of the Commission regional office shall submit it to The Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints so it can address such a complaint.

²¹⁹ Presumably the forms will include clear information as to how and where the complainant will find out about the decision reached about his/her complaint (or will be informed in some other way at the time of collecting the form). See Article 65(5) for the mode of communication through public display boards, which appears to be the only practical method, at present.

²²⁰ The reference to 'administrative' is missing from here.

²²¹ This establishment Clause ought to have come before Clause 4 of this Article. It is repeated again in Article 66(1) below. The same Panel has already been mentioned in Article 46(5) above.

²²² This is in line with Article 10(3)(c) of the Organisation of the Judiciary Law – Law No. 24/2003 \(2008\). The time limit for taking such appeals against final administrative decisions is 30 days from the receipt of the final decision of the Panel (see Article 18(1) of the OJ Law) – electoral cases that that reach the courts are usually dealt with expeditiously by the courts. Note that, as set out in Article 59 of these Regulations, this Panel also deals with complaints against refusal of registration, and similar considerations apply in respect of appeals to the Supreme Court against the Panel's final decisions – see Article 59(7).

3. After studying the nature of the complaint, the national level complaint and conflict resolution committee shall make/pass an administrative decision to address the complaint
4. A decision must be reached about every complaint within ten (10) days.
5. The decision shall be forwarded to and posted²²³ on the places (boards) where the preliminary voters' lists have been displayed.

PART THREE

Article 66 The Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints

1. The Commission shall establish an Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints which shall reach decisions about the complaints relating to the registration of voters.²²⁴
2. The Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints shall have its seat at the main headquarters of the National Electoral Commission.
3. The Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints shall consist of the following six members:
 - a) Two members of the Electoral Commission at national level.
 - b) The Legal Affairs Adviser of the Commission.
 - c) The Head of the Registration Department.
 - d) The Head of the Operations Department.
 - e) The Head of the IT Department.
4. In the periods when the voters' registration is ongoing, the Administrative Panel for the Resolution of Voters' Registration Complaints may work at any region where the voters' registration is being conducted and shall respond most urgently to the complaints submitted to them.

PART FOUR

Article 67 Final Voters' Register

1. After reaching decisions about the complaints and making any corrections that have been decided upon, the Commission shall produce the final Voters' Register which is divided into regional, district and polling station levels.
2. The final Voters' Register shall be produced six months²²⁵ before the election polling date.

²²³ See footnote 91 above relating to Article 63(1). In the current circumstances, this appears to be the only practicable method of communicating the decisions.

²²⁴ This appears to be a repetition of Article 63(6).

²²⁵ This reflects the unwieldy (and controversial) condition in Article 26(2) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law. Once a comprehensive Voters' Register is established after this (2016) iris recognition based voter registration exercise, there may not be a need for such a such a long period.

3. The Voters' Register shall be confidential information kept in computers and registers pulling together all the particulars recorded in respect of each citizen when being registered as a voter.
4. The Voters' Register is a national asset and the National Electoral Commission is responsible for its care and protection.
5. It is forbidden for the particulars and details in the Voters' Register to be taken out of the country²²⁶.

Article 68 Distribution of the Voting Card

1. Any person who is recorded in the final Voters' Register has the right to be issued with a Voting Card when s/he presents his/her Certificate of Registration. The Voting Card shall have recorded on it following particulars:
 - a) The (voter's) name in four²²⁷ recorded in equally sized letters of the same font.
 - b) The photograph of the voter.
 - c) The number of the (voter's) Identity Card.
 - d) The voter's registration reference number.
 - e) His/her year of birth.
 - f) Gender (male or female).
 - g) The polling station where the voter may cast his/her vote.
2. Any person who had his Certificate of Registration damaged or lost may request a Voting Card from Commission after it is confirmed that his/her particulars in the voters' registration list have been verified.²²⁸
3. Copies of the Voters' Register shall be given to the Ministry of Internal Affairs and the national political parties.
4. Every region shall be given copies of the voters' register for that region which shall be classified into districts, settlements and voters' registration stations²²⁹.

Article 69 Loss of Voting Card

1. Any person who losses his/her voting card must report it to the nearest police station

²²⁶ This mirrors Article 14(5) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law. In a digital era, this is an imprecise wording, but the mischief that been addressed here is the wholesale or partial export out of the country of the data of the Register which includes the personal particulars of the registrants. Countries have such rules for the protection of their citizens' data. However, summaries of statistical information based on the publicly available information from the Voters' Register that do not compromise the privacy of the registrants and is used for legitimate reports or studies would presumably not contravene this Clause. The Commission needs to develop more detailed regulations addressing the confidentiality of the information in the Register, as well as the limits of the legitimate handling/use of some of the information on the Register or the lists.

²²⁷ See footnote to Article 56(1)(a) above.

²²⁸ Clauses 2 to 4 of this Article are numbered 6 to 8 in the original signed Somali text of the Regulations, but as the Article clearly consists of only 4 clauses, this appears to be a numbering error. I have therefore used the correct numbering in this translation.

²²⁹ The information will also include the polling stations which are of much more importance at this stage. Note that, with except for the polling stations that have been lumped together for the voter registration, the vast majority of the polling stations would have also served as registration stations.

within a period not exceeding two weeks, and must declare the reasons for the loss.

2. When the police are convinced of the reasons for the loss, they shall give a confirmation letter the person who shall take it to the Commission's office or to the Commission's district or regional representatives.

3. On receipt of the police confirmation letter, the Commission's office or its district or regional representatives shall request from the Commission to prepare for the person, within a period not exceeding one month, a Voting Card with the same reference number as the previous lost card.

4. Any person who has his/her Voting Card damaged shall take the damaged card, together with an application declaring the reasons for the damage, to the regional or district offices of the Commission, which on being convinced of the reasons for the damage to the card, shall forward the matter to the Commission headquarters for the preparation of a replacement card for the person.

5. Any person who is having his Voting Card replaced must initially have his specific particulars²³⁰ verified and have his eyes scanned.

6. Without prejudice to the preceding Clause, any person who loses his/her Voting Card or has his/her card damaged during the period between the 2017²³¹ elections and the (next)²³² registration period is not entitled to have his/her card replaced or renewed²³³.

7. The Commission shall, at the latest six months before every election²³⁴, announce the period allowed for the registration of citizens who fulfil the registration conditions laid under the Law and who are not already registered, and for those who want to have their voters cards changed or their lost voter cards replaced.

8. The Commission shall announce periodically the times that card replacements can be done in the (various) regions of the Republic of Somaliland.

²³⁰ Including, presumably, his/her Somaliland citizenship unless s/he has produced an Identity Card.

²³¹ The next (combined) elections are the presidential and House of Representatives elections due to be on 28 March 2017. Whilst it a right (subject to a verification procedure) under Article 13 of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law to have one's lost or damaged voter's card replaced, the Commission may want to address how that replacement process can work immediately before the election day, as no cut-off date has been set in either the Law or the Regulations. Mere administrative convenience is not a legitimate factor but the dangers of abuse and damage to the integrity of the verification procedure may well be a justifiable factor in setting a cut-off deadline for replacements which should be very widely publicised well beforehand and a robust and transparent exceptional procedure for dealing with cases involving unusual exigencies.

²³² After this 2016 comprehensive voter registration, there will not be a rolling update of the Voter Register but, as set out in the following Clause, there will be periodic voter registrations that will be undertaken and finalised (unless the Law is changed) at the latest six months before the next nationwide or national election - disregarding the House of Elders which may well end up with an indirect election system, this is likely to be the local districts elections due to held in or around early January 2018. This Clause, therefore, refers to the relatively short period from the 28 March 2017 elections to the next registration period which should, according to current law, be some time before July 2017. The next round of national elections after that will then be 2022.

²³³ See the preceding footnote and also the following two clauses of this Article about the issue of new voting cards during the period before the elections after the forthcoming 2017 election(s).

²³⁴ This is based on the requirement in Article 26(2) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law.

Article 70 Amendments of the Official Voters' Register

1. (After the 2017 elections²³⁵), the Electoral Commission shall make amendments to the final Voters' Register (no later than) six months²³⁶ before every election.
2. Citizens who fulfil the registration requirements and who were not in the existing Register shall then be added to the Register, and any person who has died during the period between the previous registration and that of the next registration shall be removed.
3. Any citizens wanting to amend their personal particulars (such as the name of the person, the picture of the person, the polling station) shall be given the opportunity to have these amendments made during the period before the election, and shall sign the personal particulars amendment form which the Commission will give to him/her.
4. Prior to any amendments to personal particulars being made, the optical (eye) characteristics of the person shall be confirmed and his/her own particulars shall be verified.
5. Clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this Article shall not apply to the planned 2017 elections.
6. Only the citizens in the Final Voters' Register lists have the right to vote²³⁷, and (the right) to be elected²³⁸.

CHAPTER SEVEN: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

CHAPTER ONE

Article 71 Prohibition of more than one card

1. It is prohibited from any citizen to hold more than one card or to give false information to be recorded in the registration documents. If a citizen takes more than one (voting) card or gives false information for recording in the registration documents, s/he shall incur the ²³⁵ I have added this phrase in brackets for clarity. As confirmed by Clause 3 of this Article, this Clause 1 relates to the period after the planned March 2017 elections when the final Voters' Register will be opened up again for amendments and additions six months before the following elections (which are likely to be the nationwide district councils' elections due to be held in early January 2018).

²³⁶ This requirement of 'no later than six months' before the election for the production of any final Voter's Register is set out in Article 26(2) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law (and also re-confirmed in Article 67(2) of these Regulations) applies (unless amended) to the production of the newly amended Final Register for the next elections after the forthcoming planned March 2017 elections.

²³⁷ This reflects Article 26(1) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law which states that 'only a citizen and registered in the Voter's Register can vote in the nation's elections'. This provision has therefore replaced the brief 13 December 2011 Voters' Registration (Amendments Addendum No. 3) Law which not only voided the 2008 Voters' Register but also repealed the provisions in the 2001 Presidential & Local Election Elections Law relating to voter registration. No doubt the provisions relating to the new voter's Register will be reinserted in 2001 Election Law and introduced into the soon to be revised 2005 Election Law, hopefully, in my view, both in one new consolidated Presidential & House of Representatives Election Law.

²³⁸ This part of the Clause 6 relating to candidates for election follows the provisions of Article 4(2) of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law and Article 4 of the 2007 Voters' Registration Law, but interestingly the numerous requisite conditions, in the electoral (and local government) laws as well the Constitution, for candidacy to elected public office do not expressly include a requirement to be in the Voters' Register.

punishment set out in Article 44 of the Law²³⁹.

2. Any Commission staff member who issues more than one card (to a person) or falsifies registration documents or facilitates the submission by another person of false information to be recorded in the registration documents shall incur the punishment set out in Article 44 of the Law²⁴⁰.

3. Any person who is found to have registered more than once shall lose his/her right to vote until another voters' registration is conducted²⁴¹.

Article 72 Erroneous information

If there is any erroneous information in the final Voters' Register, it will have no effect on the implementation of the rest of the Register and the Commission may issue orders to correct any such erroneous information²⁴² before the (relevant) forthcoming election.

Article 73 Amendment

These Regulations may be amended or added²⁴³ to by the members of the National Electoral Commission.

Article 74 Coming into force

1. These Regulations shall come into force on their signature²⁴⁴ by the members of the National Electoral Commission, and shall at the same time be published in the Official Gazette.

²³⁹ These punishments for such offences by citizens are set out in Clause 1 and 2 of Article 44 of the 2014 Voters Registration Law.

²⁴⁰ The offences by the public officials are covered by Clause 4 (and 5) of Article 44 of the 2014 Voters Registration Law, but as noted in the my footnote explanations to my translation of Article 44 of the Law, some of the criminal acts committed by public officials or by the members of the public may well also amount to offences under the Penal Code, in which case which provision applies in each case will depend on Article 14 of the Penal Code that defines the boundaries between offences created under special laws (such as the Article 44 of 2014 Law) and the standard criminal offences in the Penal Code.

²⁴¹ This Clause mirrors Clause 2 of Article 44 of the 2014 Law.

²⁴² This power is aimed at correcting any obviously erroneous particulars that may be discovered after the Final Register has been produced by the Commission in line with Article 38 of the 2014 Voters' Registration Law and Article 67 of the Regulations. However, if these corrections involve matters that would be of interest to the political parties such as changes of a voter from one polling station to another or the removal of a person from the Final Register because of discovery of his/her ineligibility at this late stage, then these matters should be dealt with in a transparent manner and communicated promptly to the political parties. The Commission may therefore consider adopting special procedures for the identification of these types of corrections, the forwarding information to the parties and perhaps the extension of Regulation 62(4) type procedure for the submission and consideration of any complaints the parties may submit. For obvious practical purposes, as well, the Commission may set a deadline before the election(s) after which no further corrections can be made, as this Article, in any case, confirms that erroneous information shall not affect the overall validity of the Final Register.
